Three Advance To County Finals

Cynthia Gooch Wins Wellsville Bee

CYNTHIA GOOCH PROUDLY WEARS the crown of champion after winning Wednesday's citywide spelling bee at Wellsville. Also receiving trophies were Daniel Crook and Kim Corsello. William Ferrall, president of the Board of Education, is making the presentation.

Cynthia Gooch, 13, an eighth-grader at Daw Junior High School, bested 31 other spellers Wednesday in capturing the Wellsville citywide bee at the Daw audio-visual room.

Cynthia finished third in last year's bee and will take part for the third time in county-wide competition at Beaver Local Public School April 14.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gooch of 500 16th St.

DANIEL CROOK, 12, brother of the 1966 Wellsville spelling champ, Lee Crook, placed second. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Crook of 1797 Buckeye Ave.

Third place went to Kim Corsello, 13, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Corsello of Henry Ave.

All three will represent Wellsville in the bee at Beaver Local.

Kim misspelled "marriageable" yesterday while Dan fell on the word "martyr."

The three lasted 18 rounds before the contest was decided.

Dorna Stock of Garfield School was named first alternate. She missed the word "heinous."

JANIS Salajczyk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Salajczyk of 1346 Hillcrest Rd., was the Hillcrest - Fairview School winner. Miriam Bush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Bush of Riverside Ave., was winner for the second straight year from MacDonald School.

John Mackov, MacDonald School principal, was in charge.

Crisis Looms In Withholding Action

Rebellious Farmers Milk-Dumping Dramatizes Bid For Higher Prices

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rebellious farmers' spilling of milk on pastures and streets is marking a price struggle many persons believe is reaching a crisis with repercussions from rural voting booths to big city supermarkets.

The milk holding and dumping initiated in 25 states is the most dramatic expression of what farmers and their representatives in Congress describe as deep unrest over declining prices, rising costs — and the seemingly greener pasture on the city side of the fence.

A march by 100 farmers on the New Jersey state house in Trenton, dynamiting of a milk truck in Tennessee, vandalism spoilage to stored milk in Minnesota — these were among developments Wednesday as the week-long National Farmers Organiation campaign to boost milk prices heightened in intensity.

More demonstrations, boycotts and strikes are expected, said a Midwestern congressman. "He wants to be part of the affluent society."

With farm prices skidding for six consecutive months, farmers charge they are being short-changed in a booming economy.

Conscious of declining power at the polls, some farmers argue the administration simply is using its support tools to tamp down prices and court the favor of urban consumers.

Farmer Cyril Habiger of Bavaria, Kan., figures it adds up to this: "There are fewer farmers, more votes among consumers, so policies favor consumers."

Many farm leaders feel the same way. At a recent conference in Washington, one after another rose to complain about prices for wheat, feed grains, milk and other dairy products, beef cattle, rice. Many felt the government could do more to bolster prices if it wanted to.

Democrats and Republicans agree the situation foreshadows trouble for the administration, a battle in Congress and a key conflict in the 1968 presidential campaign.

Recalling past election oratory in Grange halls and corn fields, Sen. George S. McGovern, D-S.D., observed: "I think a politician who goes around the country now telling farmers they never had it so good will be rebuffed."

There is no agreement on the depth and scope of the farm problem. Some contend it is a temporary matter of overproduction, the recurring bugaboo of the American agriculture cornusopia.

Others see a crisis — with the only solution higher prices in the market place, sure to bring down the wrath of the housewife.

"I'd say it's a crisis when farm prices in 1967 are lower than they were in 1947," says Chairman W.R. Poage, D-Tex., of the House Agriculture Committee.

The solution, he adds, won't be found in new laws: "It isn't a matter of legislation any more. The farmer's situation isn't going to improve until the city dweller realizes he has to pay enough for his food to give the farmer a decent living wage."

McGovern sketches the reason behind farm unrest this way: "It is because tens of thousands of farmers are still going broke every year or closing out before going completely broke."

Many farmers, like football coaches and cab drivers, have a reputation for hugging the crying towel.

But there are these statistics in the Agriculture Department books:

—Although net farm income last year was the second highest on record, the average farmer's income was one-third less than the nonfarmer's.

—Farm prices are now 6.6 per

House Cuts Appropriations Bill

LBJ Domestic Programs Seen Facing Real Trouble

WASHINGTON (AP) — Their ranks swollen by last year's elections, House budget-cutters have indicated in the first test vote this year that President Johnson's domestic programs face real trouble.

They showed considerable muscle Wednesday as the House passed and sent to the Senate the first of a series of appropriations bills financing domestic programs for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The action came on the eve of recess by the House and Senate for a 10-day Easter vacation. The legislators were to meet briefly today — with no major action scheduled — and won't return until April 3.

The appropriations bill carried $7.5 billion for the Treasury and Post Office departments and the executive office of the President. Since it finances the jobs of thousands of mail carriers and other postal employes, it is one of the most difficult to cut.

Yet it reached the House floor trimmed $112 million below the President's request. And, with almost solid Republican backing, the House chopped out another $2.4 million earmarked for more postal field employes and more personnel for the office of the Treasury secretary.

More significantly, the budget-cutters came much closer than in any recent year to imposing an across the board reduction in spendin next year for activities financed in the bill.

One of the items is the President's salary and allowances of $150,000.

The over-all cut, proposed by Rep. Charles R. Jones, R-N.C., and supported by most Republicans, would have in essence trimmed spending next year 5 per cent from amounts set out in the President's budget.

Jonas estimated the saving at $109 million.

Jonas' amendment lost 217 to 168, with 153 Republicans and 15 Democrats supporting it and 198 Democrats and 19 Republicans opposed.

Earlier, in the day, Republican leaders set a goal of $5 billion to $6 billion in spending re-

Royal assent, the final legislative stage, was given in the House of Lords to the measure for which the Labor government had campaigned in the 1964 and 1966 elections. The Laborites contended the steel industry had failed to modernie and needed reorganiation.

U.S. Officials Say Reds Understating Casualties In War

Rising Costs Underscore War Losses

Both Sides Report Record Casualties And More Troops

SAIGON (AP) — The ever-mounting cost of the Vietnam war was underscored today by the announcement of record American and Communist casualties last week while both sides increased in total strength.

Communist mortar barrages accounted for much of the rising U.S. casualties, and more of these were reported Wednesday and today in two sensitive war spots.

Red mortar shells rained down on U.S. positions just below the demilitarized zone separating North and South Vietnam and along the Cambodian border where the biggest U.S. jungle sweep of the war is under way.

The U.S. Command also disclosed that 18 such ground sweeps are now being conducted, an indication that a high level of casualties can be expected to continue.

The U.S. Command said that 2,675 Communist soldiers were killed last week while 211 Americans were killed and 1,874 were wounded.

At the same time, U.S. troop strength in the country grew to 427,000 men, while U.S. intelligence estimated Communist strength at 286,000 men, increases of 4,000 on each side. The Communists increased their numbers despite the loss of 19,500 dead — the equivalent of eight full regiments — since the first of the year.

The U.S. Command drew attention to the Red mortar attacks as "a tactic the enemy is favoring increasingly." An official summary said "this trend

'Hawks, Doves'

Does Hanoi Have Its Own Factions?

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER
AP Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials believe the North Vietnam government has its own "hawk" and "dove" factions whose shifting influence may help explain why President Ho Chi Minh released this week his correspondence with President Johnson.

Johnson administration leaders apparently were more surprised by publication of the letters than by Ho's earlier rejection of Johnson's proposal to open direct, secret peace talks.

The pattern of Hanoi's behavior in dealing with peace probes is now undergoing careful analysis here for whatever light it may shed on future possibilities for opening negotiations.

Basic to this study is the belief that various factions exist within the North Vietnamese ruling group which may be related to pro-Soviet and pro-Red Chinese interests.

Exactly what the "hawk" and "dove" labels would mean in Hanoi is not clear to Washington authorities, but generally they feel that some advisors in Ho's inner circle favor exploring the possibility of peace talks, perhaps for purely tactical reasons, while others advocate rigid adherence to a war policy regardless of cost and risk.

In the exchanges which began between the U.S. and North Vietnamese governments early in January, officials believe they see evidence of variations in behavior brought about by the shifting patterns of decision making in Hanoi.

There were five contacts between the governments topped off by Johnson's letter, which asked for U.S.-North Vietnamese talks and proposed to halt the bombing of North Vietnam and stop building up U.S. forces in the South if Ho Chi Minh would stop infiltration into the South.

Johnson's letter, which Hanoi made public Tuesday along with Ho's reply, was delivered through a North Vietnamese diplomat in Moscow.

On some occasions, North Vietnamese representatives have refused to receive messages from the United States. On other occasions, they have received them. In Washington's

Hanoi Given Low Figures By Officers

Deliberately Tone Down Reports To North Viet Capital

WASHINGTON (AP) — Intercepted military messages indicate Communist battlefield commanders are holding back or toning down reports to Hanoi about their Vietnam war casualties, U.S. officials report.

Captured documents discussed by Gen. William C. Westmoreland at this week's Guam conference were said to show the Viet Cong deliberately understate their battle losses while exaggerating American casualties 20 to 40 times.

American figures reflect 60 per cent higher enemy casualties this year compared with 1966.

Officials said this masking of the true situation by Communist fighters in the field may be one reason the North Vietnamese leadership presses the war despite increasing allied power.

These officials, who refused to be publicly named, said that until Hanoi's will is broken by military pressure, the conflict could drag on indefinitely.

Officials refused to say the war will be intensified to force the enemy to negotiate a peace, but disclosed American B52s will be moved to Thailand in April to be nearer Communist targets in Vietnam.

This shift of some of the big jets from Guam, where strikes now originate, will cut tht B52s' base to target time from six hours to two.

It will mean more B52 bombing missions can be conducted

Ohio's Board Eyeing Truck Tax Strategy

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Working against an April 1 deadline if Pennsylvania fails to budge, the Ohio Reciprocity Board will gather next Wednesday—March 29 — to consider strategy in a threatened truck tax war.

Meanwhile, Gov. James A. Rhodes' office says the Ohio chief executive plans to try to patch the matter up with Gov. Raymond P. Shafer of Pennsylvania.

Saxbe, chairman of the three - member board, decided Wednesday to convene it in his office the 29th. The other members of the board entrusted with working out mutual privileges on truck tax and licensing with other states are Highway Safety Director Warren C. Nelson and Utilities Commission Chairman Carl R. Johnson.

The need for action developed after Shafer notified Rhodes recently that Ohio truckers would be subject on April 1 to Pennsylvania's truck tax which went into effect nearly three years ago.

Saxbe's chief counsel, Charles Lopeman, warned that imposition of the tax on Ohio transport in the Keystone State would make Pennsylvania truckers subject to arrest in Ohio unless licensed in Ohio or a state practicing reciprocity with Ohio.

Shaw's Indicted For 'Conspiracy'

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A grand jury has indicted Clay L. Shaw on a charge of "wilfully and unlawfully conspiring" to murder President John F. Kennedy.

Shaw, 54, headed for a hideaway today on the Mississippi Gulf Coast with Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison's approval.

Shaw, who retired in October 1965 as managing director of the International Trade Mart here, has been free on $10,000 bond since his arrest March 1.

The district attorney had said earlier he would bypass the grand jury and file a bill of information before bringing Shaw to trial.

Garrison risked a "no true bill" by taking the case before the grand jury. He had already won a ruling from a three-judge state court panel that sufficient evidence was presented at a preliminary hearing to warrant holding Shaw for trial.

However, he still could have filed a bill of information in the case if the grand jury refused to indict Shaw.

By filing a bill of information, the district attorney would have had to divulge specific details of the case. In Louisiana, which patterns its laws on the Napoleonic code of France, a prosecutor has a choice of bringing a man to trial either by a grand jury indictment or a bill of information.

Shaw was charged by the grand jury's true bill with "wilfully and unlawfully conspiring with David W. Ferrie, Lee Harvey Oswald and unnamed others to murder John F. Kennedy."

7,507 Signed For City Vote

Last-Minute Rush Sees 52 Enrolled

East Liverpool has 7,507 voters qualified for the municipal primaries May 2, the County Election Board said today after ringing down the curtain on registration Wednesday night at 9.

Fifty - two qualified in the usual last - minute rush. Forty-two were signed at the board's office on W. 6th St. and 10 more enrolled at branch registration centers that operated Tuesday and Wednesday at the Pleasant Heights School, North Side Fire Station and Louis - James Store on Mulberry St.

State law requires that registration now will be closed until May 13.

East Liverpool started 1967 with 7,028 qualified voters after the annual year - end check to remove the names of persons who had not voted at least once in the preceding two years. The board said 346 of the registrations later were reinstated for persons who took advantage of an opportunity to qualify again by mail.

Total new registrations since Jan. 1 stand at 133.

No real registration rush developed, despite the board's all-out campaign, launched in early March. The office on W. 6th St. operated on a continuous 12-hour schedule the last three days before the deadline and the branch registration offices functioned for eight hours each of the last two days.

Unprecedented Court Decision

Alabama School Officials Face Desegregation Task

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — An unprecedented federal court decision has placed the burden of enforcing desegregation of 99 Alabama school systems on state officials.

An indication of how state officials will react may come during a statewide radio and television address by Gov. Lurleen Wallace, according to a source close to the governor. Thus far, however, there has been no comment from the governor's office or state school officials on Wednesday's ruling.

The source said Mrs. Wallace's address will probably take place in the near future and may be the "most important and historic speech ever made by a governor in modern times." It was not specified, but the address is expected to deal with the court's order for statewide school desegregation.

A member of the State Board of Educaion said the decision means "HEW (the Department of Health, Education and Welfare) is out of it now."

Ed Dannelly of Andalusia said the most important factor is that "now we'll be dealing with judges and not a bunch of (federal) bureaucrats. I think the whole school system will be better off under a federal judge who perhaps can interpret the Civil Rights Act of 1964."

The three judges unanimously ordered the state to require the 99 systems not under previous

Alabama School Officials Face Desegregation Task

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (AP) — An unprecedented federal court decision has placed the burden of enforcing desegregation of 99 Alabama school systems on state officials.

An indication of how state officials will react may come during a statewide radio and television address by Gov. Lurleen Wallace, according to a source close to the governor. Thus far, however, there has been no comment from the governor's office or state school officials on Wednesday's ruling.

The source said Mrs. Wallace's address will probably take place in the near future and may be the "most important and historic speech ever made by a governor in modern times." It was not specified, but the address is expected to deal with the court's order for statewide school desegregation.

A member of the State Board of Educaion said the decision means "HEW (the Department of Health, Education and Welfare) is out of it now."

Ed Dannelly of Andalusia said the most important factor is that "now we'll be dealing with judges and not a bunch of (federal) bureaucrats. I think the whole school system will be better off under a federal judge who perhaps can interpret the Civil Rights Act of 1964."

The three judges unanimously ordered the state to require the 99 systems not under previous

7,507 Signed For City Vote

Last-Minute Rush Sees 52 Enrolled

East Liverpool has 7,507 voters qualified for the municipal primaries May 2, the County Election Board said today after ringing down the curtain on registration Wednesday night at 9.

Fifty - two qualified in the usual last - minute rush. Forty-two were signed at the board's office on W. 6th St. and 10 more enrolled at branch registration centers that operated Tuesday and Wednesday at the Pleasant Heights School, North Side Fire Station and Louis - James Store on Mulberry St.

State law requires that registration now will be closed until May 13.

East Liverpool started 1967 with 7,028 qualified voters after the annual year - end check to remove the names of persons who had not voted at least once in the preceding two years. The board said 346 of the registrations later were reinstated for persons who took advantage of an opportunity to qualify again by mail.

Total new registrations since Jan. 1 stand at 133.

No real registration rush developed, despite the board's all-out campaign, launched in early March. The office on W. 6th St. operated on a continuous 12-hour schedule the last three days before the deadline and the branch registration offices functioned for eight hours each of the last two days.

Pittenger Retires

Eberle And Hermann Get Globe Brick Promotions

William F. Porter, president of the Globe Brick Co. of Newell, has announced the election of Robert B. Eberle Jr., vice president, finance and administration, to the post of secretary, and Paul Hermann as treasurer effective April 1.

Leland C. Pittenger, Globe's present secretary - treasurer, is retiring April 30, with 38 years service.

Pittenger, who holds an A.B. degree from Youngstown University, started his business career with the First National Bank of East Liverpool in 1921 and went to Globe in 1929. During his tenure, he served in various administrative and management capacities and has been secretary-treasurer since 1962.

James Kind, traffic manager, will retire May 31, with 42 years service. Kind relocated to Globe in 1925 from the Crucible Steel Co. and has held various positions in production planning, traffic and administration. He will be succeeded by his present assistant, Harry Shane.

Eberle, a lawyer and financial executive, joined Globe as vice-president in February 1966. Hermann, a certified public accountant, has been with the company since 1962 as Controller. Shane, formerly with the Pennsylvania Railroad Co., joined Globe in 1959.

Globe, founded in 1873, is one of the nation's largest and highly automated refractory plants.

Three Speakers Announced In April Forum On Schools

State Legislators Clarence Wetzel of Lisbon and John Longsworth of Salem and Robert Manchester, a member of the State Board of Education, will be featured speakers and panelists during the public information forum on schools April 6 at 7:30 p. m. at Westgate Auditorium.

The forum, sponsored by the Ohio School Boards Association and the State Department of Education, is one of 25 being held in Ohio during March and April. The meeting format is designed to open a dialogue between school officials, legislators and the public on issues confronting the schools and current school legislation.

Wetzel, representative from the 34th District, and Longsworth, senator from the 30th District, will discuss school legislation introduced in the 107th General Assembly.

Manchester and William Painter, research associate with the Department of Education's division of school district organization, will provide background and answer questions on the State Board of Education's master plan for reorganizing Ohio's school districts.

The public is invited to attend.

Prices

cent below a year ago, 7.4 per cent below last summer's peak and reflect only 74 per cent of the parity price goals of federal farm programs compared with 82 per cent a year ago.

—Farm costs soared to a record high last year, taking almost three-fourths of farmers' gross receipts. They are expected to climb about the same amount—8 per cent—again this year.

Glea Gillum, who farms 720 acres near Gypsum, Kan., describes the price-cost squeeze as a crisis: "Prices of our products are lower than they were 10 years ago and prices of everything we buy are much higher.

"Machinery is way up. Back then I could trade my old combine and 1,000 bushels of wheat for a new combine. Now it would probably take 3,000 bushels and my 5-year-old machine to get a new one."

The Agriculture Department reports these increases in farmers' costs: Farm machinery about 5 per cent higher than a year ago; interest rates 12 per cent higher; taxes up 7 per cent; farm wage rates 8 per cent higher.

As examples, the department says a self-propelled grain combine which cost about $6,660 a year ago now costs $6,925; a grain drill which cost $1,670 now costs an average of $1,710.

Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman acknowledges "I am dissatisfied and unhappy about farm prices and farm income.

"It is unhealthy to allow such an unfair, uneconomical condition to continue. If we fail to achieve the parity of income that the farmer is entitled to earn, we will lose our best farmers, and this nation and a hungry world will suffer."

Variety Of Incidents Mark Milk Holding

CHICAGO (AP) — Dynamite blasts, rifle fire, marches, dumpings, milk baths and washing cars with milk highlighted efforts of a week-long campaign by the National Farmers Organization to raise the price of milk.

Despite violence and the shenanigans, including farmers' wives bathing in milk, there was no significant evidence of price hikes or milk shortages in affected areas.

In some instances, the NFO bought up supplies of milk in supermarkets, then gave the milk away with declarations that "we'd rather give it away than sell it."

Reports from around the country indicated the NFO would step up its attempts to get a two cent per quart price increase.

Milk was being dumped on a grand scale throughout the country.

At Chapel Hill, Tenn., an explosion wrecked a 33,000-gallon milk tanker which was parked and empty. A bullet from a high-powered rifle punctured a 4,000-gallon tanker en route from Lafayette to Nashville with milk.

Farmers, their wives and children marched on the state house in Trenton, N.J. All seemed assured the march would have some affect on consumers.

court orders to submit desegregation plans for the term beginning this fall. Albama has 118 school systems.

The decree is the first to call for statewide, state-enforced school desegregation.

Alabama's governor and state education officials were told to "take affirmative action to disestablish all state enforced or encouraged public school segregation."

The court said, "The defendant state officials have engaged in a wide range of activities to maintain segregated public education throughout the state."

To provide a remedy for Negro complainants, the only effective means according to the court is "a uniform statewide plan for school desegregation made applicable to each local county and city system not already under court order to desegregate."

Tax Reminder Given Residents Of Glasgow

A reminder to delinquent taxpayers of Glasgow Borough has been issued by William C. Craine, tax collector.

All unpaid 1966 taxes — borough and school — and a $12 per capita school tax will be filed for action at the Beaver County Court May 29. These taxes were due Nov. 1 and a penalty of 5 per cent is in effect.

Kocevar Is Convicted On 'Conflict' Charge

CLEVELAND (AP)—A common pleas court jury convicted John L. Kocevar, former chief executive officer in the Cuyahoga County Sheriff's Department, of a conflict of interest charge Wednesday.

Kocevar, freed on bond pending a motion for a new trial, was accused of serving as secretary of Kitchen Reddy Foods, Inc., when the firm sold food to the county for use at the jail while he was on the sheriff's staff.

Hanoi

view, this variation in behavior can be explained most readily by which faction in Hanoi has the upper hand at the time.

The four messages to Hanoi which preceded Johnson's letter were all concerned with the possibility of expanding a Vietnamese New Year's celebration and cease-fire from a brief truce into a prolonged halt in hostilities coupled with peace negotiations.

The series reportedly began in part as an effort on the part of Johnson and Secretary of State Dean Rusk to discover the meaning of public statements, generally construed as possible peace feelers, made by North Vietnamese spokesmen shortly after Jan. 1.

The U. S. undertook in secret to find out whether these moves by North Vietnam were seriously intended as peace probes or whether they were merely designed to create worldwide pressure on Johnson to suspend the bombing without any responsive military action by North Vietnam.

While the U.S. messages reportedly were forwarded from Hanoi's mission in Moscow to the North Vietnamese government, they drew no response until Jan. 27 when the United States received what the State Department has called a "diatribe."

This message from Hanoi is understood to have denounced the United States for "aggression" in Vietnam and to have emphasized North Vietnam's demand for an unconditional and total end to bombing and other attacks before peace talks could be held.

Johnson's letter two weeks later represented an effort to raise the exchange to the highest level of government and, hopefully, find out whether at that level North Vietnam's response might be somewhat more encouraging.

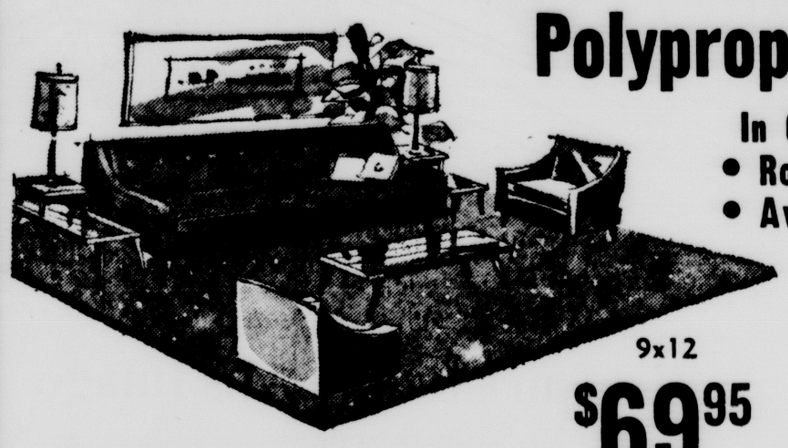

Meanwhile Pope Paul VI sent messages urging that the Vietnamese New Year truce be developed into peace negotiations.

Ho replied to the Pope Feb. 13 in a letter which accused the United States of aggression and "monstrous crimes," and asked the Pope to use his influence to get the U.S. to "respect the national rights of the Vietnamese people."

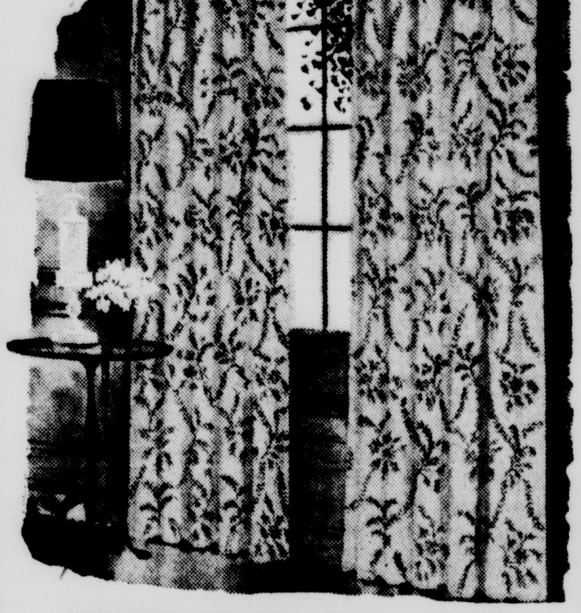

Guatemala, which faces both the Caribbean Sea and the Pacific Ocean, has the largest population of any Central American republic. Approximately 70 per cent of its people are farmers producing coffee, bananas and the world's best chicle, which is a basic ingredient of chewing gum.

Those Constitution Changers

There currently is a crescendo of chatter about changing the Constitution, either through amendment or statutory doctoring, to suit the ideas of critics who charge the Supreme Court with misinterpreting that precious document.

Their proposals should be salted heavily, then put aside for further study. They do not really think they can make any substantive changes in the Constitution. They do not even believe they can water down its principles by passing statutory laws that would have to be ruled unconstitutional if they actually did what their framers promised they would do.

The current crop of chatterers must be likened to a crop that has been talking about changing the Constitution for the greater part of a century — Confederate diehards still waving Confederate flags and mooning about the South rising again etc., etc.

People talking about taking the teeth out of the Fifth Amendment have no brighter prospects of doing it than the Southern diehards ranting about getting rid of the Fourteenth Amendment.

Getting rid of a constitutional principle is a talking point with them, as it has been for Americans since the beginning of constitutionl government. That's all it is. Scuttling a constitutional principle, short of the kind of nationwide crisis in law enforcement that caused repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, is impossible.

Granted that there is cause for concern about a few bad apples being released from custody because they were allowed to testify against themselves improperly, there is no cause for alarm about the future of law enforcement.

There is, instead, every reasonable prospect of better enforcement in the long run as law enforcers learn to be more thorough in preparing their cases—a prospect that has been pointed out by many police authorities.

As for Constitution changers, they should be asked to specify just what it is they propose to change and how they intend to do it.

Support For The Pentagon

The New York Times recently published a report by its medical writer, Howard A. Rusk MD., to shed additional light on civilian casualties in Vietnam, especially napalm victims.

Dr. Rusk visited 20 civilian hospitals and viewed all burn cases. He reported there were far more instances of burns from gasoline than napalm.

He pointed out that only 15 per cent of the patients are war casualties and concluded that if it had not been for Allied assistance the South Vietnam hospital system would have collapsed.

Dr. Rusk said the gasoline burns resulted because the war has made cooking fuel expensive and civilians have been stealing gasoline. Their unfamiliarity with its explosive qualities accounts for the many accidental burnings.

Is it not true that if there were no war there would be no gasoline to pilfer and no burns?

The doctor apparently saw no value in dwelling on the condition of napalm victims — those with chins, arms, or legs melted away: those who tried to brush the jellied gasoline off their bodies and now have webs of melted flesh between their fingers.

How about victims who had their life melted out of their scorched bodies? Where are the death figures?

Trying to prove the Pentagon maintains a constant effort to keep civilian casualties to a minimum by saying only three of every 20 hospital patients is a war casualty does not come off very well.

In the absence of war, the figure would be zero.

Dr. Rush asserted the allies have saved the South Vietnamese hospitals. With 400,000 soldiers? Rundreds of planes? Millions of bullets?

If this is the case, South Vietnam is the only country in history that has had to bear the burden of a war to get its hospital system saved; and in our book that is a strange way to run a medical operation.

Par For The Course

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON

The 90th Congress, departing today for its Easter recess and due back April 3, could stay away longer without being missed. It didn't do much, although that's par for the course at this time of year.

Even when it returns it won't come close to matching the fabulous record of the 89th Congress of 1965-66. This is a much more negative, carping kind of Congress, more bent on cutting costs than launching big, new programs.

But the 89th, elected in 1964, also dawdled in its first few months in 1965. It was in the months after returning from Easter vacation that the 89th set a production record for Congresses in this century.

President Johnson had a lot easier time getting what he wanted from the 89th where, thanks to the 1964 elections, his Democrats had overwhelming control of both houses.

Nevertheless, the voters weren't satisfied with the 89th's performance and in the 1966 elections gave the Republicans 48 Democratic seats in the House and three in the Senate.

AFTER ITS first year, even the 89th calmed down. In their 1966 session the House and Senate acted as if they had done enough and given the executive branch enough new programs to handle for years.

That mood seems to prevail in this Congress, although the energetic Johnson has dumped a wagon-load of proposals on it.

So far it has done little except to make headlines with the financial dealings of two of its members: Adam Clayton Powell, a New York Negro Democrat, and Sen. Thomas J. Dodd, D-Conn.

The House threw out Powell and the Senate Ethics Committee, whose report isn't in yet, exposed for all to see how Dodd got money from testimonial dinners and used it for his own private needs.

But there's another basic reason why this Congress doesn't have much spark. In 1965, the year in which he began to intensify the war in Vietnam, Johnson could still concentrate on twisting the arm of House and Senate.

He got what he wanted. But now he is up to his neck in the war, just as he was in 1966, but more so, taking a clubbing from his critics, defending himself, and, as recent events revealed, trying to get North Vietnam to talk peace.

This doesn't give him — and it wouldn't give any president — the time he needs to do missionary work for his domestic programs in Congress. Since he can't spend as much time on this as he otherwise could, it does much to explain why he hasn't been in any brawls with Congress.

BESIDES, the far - outnumbered Republicans were fairly docile in 1965. Now, because of the 1966 elections, they're getting their spunk back, talking up and back.

Since they have their eyes and their hopes on the 1968 elections, they can't afford to act like Johnson's sheep, which makes it harder for him to do business.

The biggest, most heated legislative achievement of the year up till now was Senate approval of this country's consular treaty with the Soviet Union, an approval Johnson badly wanted as a step toward better relations with Moscow.

Perhaps nothing better expressed the mood of the place than what happened Wednesday. With almost solid Republican backing, the economy-bent members of the House sought to cut by 5 per cent a $7.5 billion appropriation bill to finance the Treasury and the Post Office departments and the executive office of the President.

If it had ever passed both House and Senate, it would have cut the President's salary and spending allowances which come to $150,000 a year. But the effort failed and the House-approved bill went to the Senate.

Reagan Changes His Image

By Victor Riesel

WASHINGTON — It is strange how little of Ronnie Reagan filters across the land in this telstar era. He's type cast.

People passionately cheer him or jeer him without knowing him. Especially don't they know him outside the pale. The substance, like it or not, differs from the shadow.

Victor Riesel

On the West Coast some days ago, I heard someone ask the California governor why he is so much better in person than in the old films.

"Because I'm writing the script now," he retorted.

And he is. Inside the pale, for example, they may know of his relations with the Negro community. But not outside.

The governor told us that day that he is organizing to go into "every pocket of unemployment to see if we cannot remove from the welfare roles those who really want to work and are capable of providing for themselvss. And I'm sure it will meet with success statewide."

BUT REAGAN talked not of a public welfare operation. He's free enterprise all the way. He believes that with state backing the Negro communities of the nation—some call them ghettos—can be succored by the nation's commerce and industry.

I have heard him tell the story of a confrontation between Chad McClellan, a Los Angeles business executive, and a hundred young Negroes who admitted leading the grim Watts riots.

"McClellan appeared personally before that group of young men," said Reagan. "Everyone had a jail record—young men who admitted they had led in the riots but had turned around and organized themselves actually to curb disorder in the future. And this was a group of fellows who, if you sent them to Vietnam, you would not have to send weapons. McClellan challenged them to take jobs. Of the 100 of them, 82 accepted the challenge.

"And today they are working in private enterprise jobs with records of no tardiness, no absenteeism. Some of them even are moving up with promotions."

THUS, the governor sees the business community—and not the federal government—as the salvation of the Negro community—from Watts to Harlem.

As Reagan talked, his tone hit an evangelical note—a blend of morality and astatistics.

"Actually," the governor told his listeners, "in the curfew area of Los Angeles in 16 months, McClellan's effort put 17,500 unemployed into private enterprise jobs.

"More than two-thirds of these newly employed still remain in those jobs," he said. "Half of the third which left simply moved on to better paying employment."

The governor, with his penchant for anecdotage, told another story.

"They put to work so many people of the Watts district that recently when they went into the area to try and find 30 qualified bus drivers they could not find a single unemployed man qualified to take this job.

"THERE STILL remains for the rest of us a great human job of salvage in the other less than 50 per cent of the unemployed (in Watts). But we are moving on from there because this Chad McClellan has taken an assignment in state government at no cost to taxpayers. He will mobilize on a statewide basis the same kind of program in private industry all over the state."

Reagan hit this like the old trade unionist he once was—with organizational skill.

Whether or not this is part of the big coast to coast push — again from Harlem to Watts—by the National Republican Committee for a rapporchement with the nation's Negroes—the fact is that Reagan has a deep faith in it. It could succeed—from Watts to Baltimore, via Cleveland. It could cool the summer. It could spawn new political coalitions.

It could give Ronald Reagan in 1968 a more realistic image across the land than that which his angry critics have hung on him as a campus cut-up and the silver screen's man in the white hat.

Reagan is now writing his own script.

A Crisis

By David Lawrence

'New Kind Of Federalism?'

The American system of government is in the midst of a crisis. Several members of Congress are expressing alarm over it.

President Johnson, on the other hand, views it as a natural evolution. He calls for a "new kind of federalism" which, he says, could lead to grants of $60 billion annually in aid to the states in another five years. This is four times the present expenditure.

The President, talking to 49 state and territorial governors at a meeting in Washington March 18, said, "We are going to have to abandon the old disputes about 'states rights' and 'stage wrongs,' about "all-powerful Washington' and 'unrepresentative state governments.' "

But the impression that conferences designed to bring about cooperation between the federal government and the states are going to be adequate is not viewed as realistic.

The cituation was described the other day by Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., a veteran judge. He said: "Centralized government may in theory promise certain advantages in efficiency, consistency, and economy, but they are not realized in practice. A striking example of the failure of centralized government to achieve even these limited objectives was recently brought to light in Oakland, Calif.

"A local agency conducted a study of the various federal programs in operation in the city and made some startling discoveries. The study revealed that there were no less than 140 separate federal programs, representing a federal investment of $87 million, functioning within the city. . . .

"These figures are even more astounding when it is realized that Oakland is a city with a population of only 367,000. This situation was aptly described in the press as '140 cooks stirring a sieve.'

"This brand of 'federalism' is running wild and unless it is checked we will have nothing but a centralized government in which the majority of the people will be held in bondage to a remote bureaucracy by a network of federal grants and subsidies.

"At last count, there were over 170 federal aid programs, administered by 21 federal departments and agencies, with some 150 major bureaus and offices in Washington, and 400 regional or subregional offices in the field. They will parcel out $15 billion in federal aid to state and local governments this fiscal year, and this figure is expected to quadruple by 1975.

"During the same period, almost $40 billion will be paid directly to individuals under various federal programs such as Social Security benefits, veterans' pensions, military retirement and unemployment insurance.

"Personally, I do not believe our system of government can carry such a load. Impossible financial burdens are gradually building up to an unbearable extent. The 'vested' interest that millions of voters have in a monthly check will undoubtedly influence their vote.

"A strong-willed president, once in office, can perpetuate his party in the White House by re-electing himself if eligible, or his choice of a successor if ineligible."

Various concepts of a "new federalism' have been advanced in the last 30 years while the flow of federal money to the states — under the "New Deal," the "Fair Deal," the "New Frontier" and the "Great Society" — has been steadily increasing.

Recently, proposals have been made by some of the governors that the states should get a refund of federal tax revenues and decide for themselves how to spend the money. But these ideas are not getting a favorable response from the Johnson administration.

Meantime, the federal government, with its almost unlimited taxing power, is impairing the capacity of the states to raise enough money to take care of their own needs.

While there is plenty of talk about "creative federalism,' no practical program has been advanced, and nearly every new project is based upon retention of federal power.

State and local governments are worried about it.

Sooner or later a constitutional convention — initiated by two thirds of the state legislatures — may be demanded in order to define clearly federal and state responsibilities.

Cruise passengers eat and drink half their weight on a typical two - week Caribbean cruise, says the National Geographic Society. For such a voyage from New York, the Greek Line's Olympia takes aboard 500 pounds of venison, 10,000 pounds of steak, 8,000 pounds of chickens, 1,500 pounds of ducks, 2,000 pounds of bacon, 4,000 pounds each of legs of lamb and lamb chops. Also, 200 pounds of fresh caviar, 5,000 pounds of fish, 2,000 pounds of shrimp, 900 pounds of live lobsters, plus great quantities of beverages and fresh and frozen fruits and vegetables.

Squid, a delicacy in many parts of the world, feeds more people than any other sea staple except scale - bearing fishes.

Eighty per cent of the people of the northeastern United States now live in cities.

A Crisis

By David Lawrence

'New Kind Of Federalism?'

The American system of government is in the midst of a crisis. Several members of Congress are expressing alarm over it.

President Johnson, on the other hand, views it as a natural evolution. He calls for a "new kind of federalism" which, he says, could lead to grants of $60 billion annually in aid to the states in another five years. This is four times the present expenditure.

The President, talking to 49 state and territorial governors at a meeting in Washington March 18, said, "We are going to have to abandon the old disputes about 'states rights' and 'stage wrongs,' about "all-powerful Washington' and 'unrepresentative state governments.'"

But the impression that conferences designed to bring about cooperation between the federal government and the states are going to be adequate is not viewed as realistic.

The cituation was described the other day by Sen. John Stennis, D-Miss., a veteran judge. He said: "Centralized government may in theory promise certain advantages in efficiency, consistency, and economy, but they are not realized in practice. A striking example of the failure of centralized government to achieve even these limited objectives was recently brought to light in Oakland, Calif.

"A local agency conducted a study of the various federal programs in operation in the city and made some startling discoveries. The study revealed that there were no less than 140 separate federal programs, representing a federal investment of $87 million, functioning within the city. . . .

"These figures are even more astounding when it is realized that Oakland is a city with a population of only 367,000. This situation was aptly described in the press as '140 cooks stirring a sieve.'

"This brand of 'federalism' is running wild and unless it is checked we will have nothing but a centralized government in which the majority of the people will be held in bondage to a remote bureaucracy by a network of federal grants and subsidies.

"At last count, there were over 170 federal aid programs, administered by 21 federal departments and agencies, with some 150 major bureaus and offices in Washington, and 400 regional or subregional offices in the field. They will parcel out $15 billion in federal aid to state and local governments this fiscal year, and this figure is expected to quadruple by 1975.

"During the same period, almost $40 billion will be paid directly to individuals under various federal programs such as Social Security benefits, veterans' pensions, military retirement and unemployment insurance.

"Personally, I do not believe our system of government can carry such a load. Impossible financial burdens are gradually building up to an unbearable extent. The 'vested' interest that millions of voters have in a monthly check will undoubtedly influence their vote.

"A strong-willed president, once in office, can perpetuate his party in the White House by re-electing himself if eligible, or his choice of a successor if ineligible."

Various concepts of a "new federalism' have been advanced in the last 30 years while the flow of federal money to the states — under the "New Deal," the "Fair Deal," the "New Frontier" and the "Great Society" — has been steadily increasing.

Recently, proposals have been made by some of the governors that the states should get a refund of federal tax revenues and decide for themselves how to spend the money. But these ideas are not getting a favorable response from the Johnson administration.

Meantime, the federal government, with its almost unlimited taxing power, is impairing the capacity of the states to raise enough money to take care of their own needs.

While there is plenty of talk about "creative federalism,' no practical program has been advanced, and nearly every new project is based upon retention of federal power.

State and local governments are worried about it.

Sooner or later a constitutional convention — initiated by two thirds of the state legislatures — may be demanded in order to define clearly federal and state responsibilities.

Through The Years

Lock Site Unused

Midland Returns Tract To Federal Government

A resolution deeding the 17.94-acre tract at former Lock No. 7 back to the federal government was adopted when the Midland Borough Council met Wednesday night at the Borough building with William Vinovich Sr. presiding.

The parcel of land was deeded on April 25, 1963, to the Borough of Midland without monetary consideration, but was subject to reversion to the government if not used for a public park and recreation purposes.

Council agreed last night that since the Borough is not using the land for recreation purposes, nor does it intend to do so, the Council president and the Mayor be authorized to execute and deliver to the federal government a deed of quitclaim from Midland Borough conveying the property without monetary consideration.

The land in Greene Township is now designated as tract 2106, New Cumberland Locks and Dam Project, U. S. Army Engineering District, Pittsburgh Corps of Engineers.

It was explained the location of the tract on the opposite side of the river posed a transportation difficulty for Midland residents.

Also the costs of developing the tract for a park would have been very expensive.

There remains the possibility that Beaver County could obtain use of the property for a park site in the future.

Assistant Borough secretary Edward Cilli read a communication from Sen. Ernest P. Kline of the 47th district which stated, "I have written to William S. Stephens, the new district highway engineer, and asked him to get that highway (referring to Rt. 68 near the sewage disposal plant and at the Beaver Creek bridge) in shape.

"I intend to go to the Secretary of Highways in the next few weeks and try to convince him to begin a long range program to reconstruct Route 68 from the Ohio line to the Beaver Valley Expressway."

A letter had been written to Kline by Council following the last Council meeting when Councilman Raymond Presutti explained the "deplorable" condition of the road at certain points between the Midland Borough line and the Ohio line.

Council approved the Borough Auditor's report for 1966.

Bills totaling $5,125 were approved for payment.

The next meeting will be April 12 at 8 p.m.

Holiday Proclaimed, Store Closings Asked

As part of the community observance of Good Friday, Mayor Eli Corak has urged the closing of businesses and offices from noon until 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The Mayor has officially proclaimed the holy day in the borough.

Milk Withholding Action Hinted Lasting 2 Months

By The Associated Press

A National Farmers Organization field staff member has told Ohio dairy farmers that if they can force a $1 increase in their price per 100 pounds of milk, they could offset any loss from a two-month holding action within a year's time.

And if milk cooperatives "had been willing to cooperate,' says an Ohio NFL official, "the milk holding action would not have been necessary" because the farmers could have won their $1 increase peacefully.

The indication that the action might be set to go as long as two months if necessary came Wednesday from Keith Emenhiser of Monroeville, Ind., at a Van Wert County NFO meeting—with 14 farmers present.

The other officer, William L. Davis of the Mount Sterling, Ohio, area, said in a statement about 80 per cent of all milk is handled by co-ops. He said some milk cooperatives have refused to sign agreements which could lead to uniform prices at what the protesting farmers say give them fair return.

The co-ops, Davis charged, "for various excuses" have refused to enter in a legal structure under which pricing could be established on a national scale, "thereby indicating they are unwilling to work for the best interests of their local dairymen. . ."

In Cincinnati Wednesday, U.S. Distt. Judge Timothy S. Hogan issued a tempoary restraining order forbidding the NFO from use of physical violence or intimidation to interfere with milk deliver to dealers.

The Cincinnati Milk Farmers Inc., representing individual farmers in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, filed the suit—also asking monetary damages claiming losses of $25,000 a day since the NFO action began March 15.

Hogan refused to grant the damages.

Richard Fout, NFO head for 14 southwestern Ohio counties, used the $25,000 a day loss claim to challenge previous milk sales association and processor contentions the holding-dumping action was having little effect on them.

Fout also denied knowledge of any violence by NFO members.

As for effectiveness, Emenhiser said one processor in Van Wert County who normally receives 250,000-3000,000 pounds daily got only 75,000 pounds delivered Tuesday. And "this is one of the weaker (NFO) counties," said county holding action chairman Clyde Clayton.

Strategy

in a 24-hour period against enemy infiltration routes through Laos as well as troop concentrations and supply stores in South Vietnam.

The planned yearend U.S. manpower goal remains unchanged, officials said. Sources report that plans are to have 470,000 men in South Vietnam by the end of December, up some 50,000 from current levels.

Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, was said to believe the 470,000 will be adequate to meet priority objectives of striking at Communist base camps and pressing the so- called pacification program.

Officials relating military assessments given at Guam said the Communists, despite problems, are fighting with increased ferocity, do not shirk encounters with allied troops and are waging an intensive effort to regain the initiative in the war.

This is illustrated by the increased tempo of actions in recent weeks, including heavier enemy assaults on U.S. bases at Da Nang and elsewhere, and greater use of mortars and recoilless rifles, officials said.

The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have tripled their mortar fire over last year.

Officials said these signs favorable to the allied campaign were pointed up during the Guam discussions:

— Documents showing Communist forces plagued with shortages of food and ammunition, and weakened by disease.

— Enemy defections increasing 100 per cent the first 10 weeks of this year over 1966.

— Interrogation of prisoners revealing friction over tactics and supplies between Viet Cong soldiers and North Vietnamese infiltrators serving in the same units.

— Captured communications indicating the Communists no longer entertain thoughts of winning. Officials said instead, they apparently are pressing attacks in hopes of improving their military posture before considering any negotiations.

Officials said the U.S. strategy remains one of applying pressure against enemy ground units in the South to convince the North Vietnamese they can't win, while bombing the North to exact a price from Hanoi for persisting in its aggression.

Vietnam

shows both increasing incidents and intensity."

U.S. Marines manning the exposed artillery position at Gio Linh, just south of the demilitarized zone, caught the heaviest barrage today. Firing from within the one, Red gunners dropped 75 rounds on the Marines in a 45-minute barrage. Despite their deep and heavily sandbagged entrenchments, 13 Marines were wounded.

Two other Americans were killed and 31 were wounded in other barrages that fell on the troops conducting Operation Junction City near the Cambodian frontier northwest of Saigon. This operation saw one of the sharpest battles of the war earlier this week and has become one of the deadliest in the war. U.S. troops have killed 1,772 Communists since it began Feb. 22.

Military headquarters also announced that elements of two South Korean divisions — an estimated 10,000 men — have been engaged in their most ambitious ground operation of the war for the past two weeks. This is a sweep along 45 miles of coastline to clear five Viet Cong battalions, about 2,500 men, from a wide area dominating the coastal highway from Song Cau to Tuy Hoa.

When the sweep is over, the Koreans said, the vital coastal road will be safe from Qui Nhon to Phan Rang, a distance of almost 300 miles.

The Koreans said so far they have killed 149 Communist soldiers, captured 150 and seized 146 weapons.

A flight of six U.S. Air Force jets added heavily to the Communist death toll Wednesday when it caught a big Viet Cong unit starting to move just at sundown in the foothills of the central highlands.

Dipping below nearby ridgelines, the jets made lethal bombing and strafing runs, and a U.S. Special Forces team which later moved through the area reported 160 Communists had been killed.

Air operations over North Vietnam were hampered again Wednesday by thick weather which limited pilots to 55 missions, one of the lowest days this year. Nearly all of the attacks were on supply lines along the coast north of the demilitarized zone.

Man Gets 3 Months In 2 Traffic Deaths

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—James Clark, 31, Youngstown, was sentenced to three months in jail Wednesday on two counts of traffic manslaughter in the deaths of two Alliance youths in a collision southwest of Youngstown on Oct. 16, 1965.

Killed in the two-car collision were William Carroll, 18, and James Schwin, 21. Authorities said a car occupied by the two victims was leaving a restaurant parking lot on Ohio 62 when it was hit broadside by Clark's car.

Deputies Press Investigation In Dynamite Theft

LISBON — Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of one - half box of dynamite Tuesday night from a contractor's shed near the junction of Routes 7 an 30.

Carl Fraley, a foreman for the Horth Construction Co. working on State Route 11, reported the burglary Wednesday.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford said Fraley told deputies the intruder got approximately 25 pounds of 8-inch sticks of Hercules dynamite and three or four rolls of connecting wires, but no blasting caps.

The material was in a mobile office—workshop, which the thief entered by breaking a plastic window. Also taken was a communications radio from a pickup truck parked near the office trailer.

Deputies currently are investigating a burglary last night at Carter's Market on Route 7 near East Fairfield.

Midland Returns Tract To Federal Government

A resolution deeding the 17.94-acre tract at former Lock No. 7 back to the federal government was adopted when the Midland Borough Council met Wednesday night at the Borough building with William Vinovich Sr. presiding.

The parcel of land was deeded on April 25, 1963, to the Borough of Midland without monetary consideration, but was subject to reversion to the government if not used for a public park and recreation purposes.

Council agreed last night that since the Borough is not using the land for recreation purposes, nor does it intend to do so, the Council president and the Mayor be authorized to execcute and deliver to the federal government a deed of quitclaim from Midland Borough conveying the property without monetary consideration.

The land in Greene Township is now designated as tract 2106, New Cumberland Locks and Dam Project, U. S. Army Engineering District, Pittsburgh Corps of Engineers.

It was explained the location of the tract on the opposite side of the river posed a transportation difficulty for Midland residents.

Also the costs of developing the tract for a park would have been very expensive.

There remains the possibility that Beaver County could obtain use of the property for a park site in the future.

Assistant Borough secretary Edward Cilli read a communication from Sen. Ernest P. Kline of the 47th district which stated, "I have written to William S. Stephens, the new district highway engineer, and asked him to get that highway (referring to Rt. 68 near the sewage disposal plant and at the Beaver Creek bridge) in shape.

"I intend to go to the Secretary of Highways in the next few weeks and try to convince him to begin a long range program to reconstruct Route 68 from the Ohio line to the Beaver Valley Expressway."

A letter had been written to Kline by Council following the last Council meeting when Councilman Raymond Presutti explained the "deplorable" condition of the road at certain points between the Midland Borough line and the Ohio line.

Council approved the Borough Auditor's report for 1966.

Bills totaling $5,125 were approved for payment.

The next meeting will be April 12 at 8 p.m.

Holiday Proclaimed, Store Closings Asked

As part of the community observance of Good Friday, Mayor Eli Corak has urged the closing of businesses and offices from noon until 3 p.m. tomorrow.

The Mayor has officially proclaimed the holy day in the borough.

Milk Withholding Action Hinted Lasting 2 Months

By The Associated Press

A National Farmers Organiation field staff member has told Ohio dairy farmers that if they can force a $1 increase in their price per 100 pounds of milk, they could offset any loss from a two-month holding action within a year's time.

And if milk cooperatives "had been willing to cooperate,' says an Ohio NFL official, "the milk holding action would not have been necessary" because the farmers could have won their $1 increase peacefully.

The indication that the action might be set to go as long as two months if necessary came Wednesday from Keith Emenhiser of Monroeville, Ind., at a Van Wert County NFO meeting—with 14 farmers present.

The other officer, William L. Davis of the Mount Sterling, Ohio, area, said in a statement about 80 per cent of all milk is handled by co-ops. He said some milk cooperatives have refused to sign agreements which could lead to uniform prices at what the protesting farmers say give them fair return.

The co-ops, Davis charged, "for various excuses" have refused to enter in a legal structure under which pricing could be established on a national scale, "thereby indicating they are unwilling to work for the best interests of their local dairymen. . . "

In Cincinnati Wednesday, U.S. Distt. Judge Timothy S. Hogan issued a tempoary restraining order forbidding the NFO from use of physical violence or intimidation to interfere with milk deliver to dealers.

The Cincinnati Milk Farmers Inc., representing individual farmers in Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky, filed the suit—also asking monetary damages claiming losses of $25,000 a day since the NFO action began March 15.

Hegan refused to grant the damages.

Richard Fout, NFO head for 14 southwestern Ohio counties, used the $25,000 a day loss claim to challenge previous milk sales association and processor contentions the holding dumping action was having little effect on them.

Fout also denied knowledge of any violence by NFO members.

As for effectiveness, Emenhiser said one processor in Van Wert County who normally receives 250,000-3000,000 pounds daily got only 75,000 pounds delivered Tuesday. And "this is one of the weaker (NFO) counties," said county holding action chairman Clyde Clayton.

Strategy

in a 24-hour period against enemy infiltration routes through Laos as well as troop concentrations and supply stores in South Vietnam.

The planned yearend U.S. manpower goal remains unchanged, officials said. Sources report that plans are to have 470,000 men in South Vietnam by the end of December, up some 50,000 from current levels.

Westmoreland, commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam, was said to believe the 470,000 will be adequate to meet priority objectives of striking at Communist base camps and pressing the so- called pacification program.

Officials relating military assessments given at Guam said the Communists, despite problems, are fighting with increased ferocity, do not shirk encounters with allied troops and are waging an intensive effort to regain the initiative in the war.

This is illustrated by the increased tempo of actions in recent weeks, including heavier enemy assaults on U.S. bases at Da Nang and elsewhere, and greater use of mortars and recoilless rifles, officials said.

The Viet Cong and North Vietnamese have tripled their mortar fire over last year.

Officials said these signs favorable to the allied campaign were pointed up during the Guam discussions:

— Documents showing Communist forces plagued with shortages of food and ammunition, and weakened by disease.

— Enemy defections increasing 100 per cent the first 10 weeks of this year over 1966.

— Interrogation of prisoners revealing friction over tactics and supplies between Viet Cong soldiers and North Vietnamese infiltrators serving in the same units.

— Captured communications indicating the Communists no longer entertain thoughts of winning. Officials said instead, they apparently are pressing attacks in hopes of improving their military posture before considering any negotiations.

Officials said the U.S. strategy remains one of applying pressure against enemy ground units in the South to convince the North Vietnamese they can't win, while bombing the North to exact a price from Hanoi for persisting in its aggression.

shows both increasing incidents and intensity."

U.S. Marines manning the exposed artillery position at Gio Linh, just south of the demilitarized zone, caught the heaviest barrage today. Firing from within the one, Red gunners dropped 75 rounds on the Marines in a 45-minute barrage. Despite their deep and heavily sandbagged entrenchments, 13 Marines were wounded.

Two other Americans were killed and 31 were wounded in other barrages that fell on the troops conducting Operation Junction City near the Cambodian frontier northwest of Saigon. This operation saw one of the sharpest battles of the war earlier this week and has become one of the deadliest in the war. U.S. troops have killed 1,772 Communists since it began Feb. 22.

Military headquarters also announced that elements of two South Korean divisions — an estimated 10,000 men — have been engaged in their most ambitious ground operation of the war for the past two weeks. This is a sweep along 45 miles of coastline to clear five Viet Cong battalions, about 2,500 men, from a wide area dominating the coastal highway from Song Cau to Tuy Hoa.

When the sweep is over, the Koreans said, the vital coastal road will be safe from Qui Nhon to Phan Rang, a distance of almost 300 miles.

The Koreans said so far they have killed 149 Communist soldiers, captured 150 and seized 146 weapons.

A flight of six U.S. Air Force jets added heavily to the Communist death toll Wednesday when it caught a big Viet Cong unit starting to move just at sundown in the foothills of the central highlands.

Dipping below nearby ridgelines, the jets made lethal bombing and strafing runs, and a U.S. Special Forces team which later moved through the area reported 160 Communists had been killed.

Air operations over North Vietnam were hampered again Wednesday by thick weather which limited pilots to 55 missions, one of the lowest days this year. Nearly all of the attacks were on supply lines along the coast north of the demilitarized zone.

Man Gets 3 Months In 2 Traffic Deaths

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— James Clark, 31, Youngstown, was sentenced to three months in jail Wednesday on two counts of traffic manslaughter in the deaths of two Alliance youths in a collision southwest of Youngstown on Oct. 16, 1965.

Killed in the two-car collision were William Carroll, 18, and James Schwin, 21. Authorities said a car occupied by the two victims was leaving a restaurant parking lot on Ohio 62 when it was hit broadside by Clark's car.

Deputies Press Investigation In Dynamite Theft

LISBON — Sheriff's deputies are investigating the theft of one - half box of dynamite Tuesday night from a contractor's shed near the junction of Routes 7 an 30.

Carl Fraley, a foreman for the Horth Construction Co. working on State Route 11, reported the burglary Wednesday.

Chief Deputy Sheriff Robert Beresford said Fraley told deputies the intruder got approximately 25 pounds of 8-inch sticks of Hercules dynamite and three or four rolls of connecting wires, but no blasting caps.

The material was in a mobile office—workshop, which the thief entered by breaking a plastic window. Also taken was a communications radio from a pickup truck parked near the office trailer.

Deputies currently are investigating a burglary last night at Carter's Market on Route 7 near East Fairfield.

Gratifying Year, Stinson Reports At National Steel

Sales during 1966 were above $1 billion for the second consecutive year; production of steel, at 8,860,000 tons, reached a new record high; $39,454,100 was paid in dividends, an all-time high, and the company's facilities improvement and expansion program advanced substantially, with major units nearing their completion dates in 1967.

IN 1966, National Steel invested $128 million in new plants and equipment and raw materials properties. This was an increase of approximately $8 million over 1965's strong capital spending program, the report points out, and was second only to 1960.

National Steel expects to spend approximately $100 million this year in its currently authoried expansion and modernization programs, stockholders were informed. Since debt securities were last issued in 1959, the company has paid out $714 million for its capital programs and long-term debt reduction. This expenditure, the report notes, is more than the net plant investment carried on the company's books.

"We look forward confidently to the benefits which we will begin to realize in 1967 from the major new facilities which will start operating this year," Stinson said.

Construction efforts in 1966 centered most heavily on the "Steel Mill of the Future" at the Weirton Steel Division and on the National Steel Pellet Co. pelletiing plant at Keewatin, Minn. Initial operations of the pellet plant are scheduled for early this year. Various elements of the "Steel Mill of the Future" will come into operation later in 1967.

OTHER activities at National Steel during 1966, described in the annual report, include the introduction of Weirchrome, a revolutionary new, chrome-plated steel for container use; the installation of a fifth continuous hot-dip galvanizing line at the Weirton Steel Division; progress on the facilities improvement program at the Great Lakes Steel Division; acquisition of the assets of Robinson Brothers, Inc., a service center at Des Moines, Iowa, and other less imposing but highly important programs at numerous other National Steel locations.

Profits of $71,860,239 in 1966, down from the record high of $87,497,465 in 1965, were adversely affected by an increase of $2,985,000 in depreciation and a decline of $2,665,000 in investment credit, the report states, adding:

"The principal difficulty lies in the continually increasing costs of operation. Costs of virtually all materials, wages, employee benefits and services increased. At the same time, our own prices were adjusted upward by only a modest and insufficient amount in hot and cold-rolled sheets and otherwise they remained stable throughout the year.

"Vigorous as our capital program and cost improvement efforts have been and will continue to be, they did not produce results as swiftly as did the various pressures which have elevated costs particularly in the past two years."

Penalties Set For Juvenile Traffic Cases

LISBON — The driver's license of Michael B. Nocera, 17, of 760 E. 18th St., Salem, was suspended for 15 days Tuesday following a hearing in Columbiana County Juvenile Traffic Court on a charge of reckless operation, specifically a left turn at a high rate of speed.

Robert J. Farnsworth, 17, East Liverpool R. D. 1, and Carol Lee Fisher, 17, Salem R. D. 5, both cited after two-car accidents, lost the right to drive for 10 days and must arrange to pay for damages before the licenses will be returned. Farnsworth was charged with reckless operation and Miss Fisher with driving left of center.

Also "curbed" for 10 days were Charles Junior Mercer, 17, of 234 Church Alley, East Liverpool, cited for failure to stop in an assured clear distance, and Walter Jay Hunston Jr., 17, of 1236 Jennings Ave., Salem, charged with improper passing.

Clarence W. Bailey, 17, of 2152 Michigan Ave., East Liverpool, was fined $10 for failure to stop in an assured clear distance, a charge filed after a two-car accident March 14 at Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce St.

William H. Matevich, 17, New Waterford, charged with driving an unsafe vehicle, had to surrender his permit to the Highway Patrol until the car passes inspection.

Clifford E. Barber, 15, Salineville R. D. 1, was placed in detention until Saturday afternoon. The under-age driver was in a traffic accident. He was ordered not to apply for a permit until his 16th birthday in June.

Pilot Credited With Preventing Serious Mishap

CLEVELAND (AP)—"It happened just as we touched the ground," an 18-year-old girl said of her brush with disaster Wednesday aboard a jet airliner.

An Eastern Air Lines Boeing 727 blew four tires on a landing at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport and skidded about 2,000 feet. No one was injured.

"It was bouncing up and down and back and forth," said Mary Lasko of Lakewood. "But the pilot stopped it pretty quickly. We all thought he did a marvelous job."

Airport spokesmen credit the pilot, Robert Pitts, 52, of Miami, Fla., with preventing a serious accident by keeping the plane on the runway and off the soft grass.

Airport officials said the plane might have flipped over if it had veered off the runway.

The three-engine jet from Miami carried 25 passengers and a crew of six. The plane stopped in Pittsburgh, where Miss Lasko got on, and the flight ended here.

Auger Hurts LaCroft Man

A LaCroft man hurt at work was admitted Wednesday to City Hospital, where a Pennsylvania man and a Wellsville girl, injured in separate accidents, were treated.

Raymond McClure of 5th Ave., LaCroft, employed by the C. and W. Auger Co. at Beaver Falls, was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries of the right hand received when an auger slipped.

Anti-Semitic Letters Sent Akron Students

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Anti-Semitic literature and letters have been sent to students at the University of Akron in the last three weeks, according to university officials.

Richard L. Hansford, dean of student services, said Wednesday that literature he described as "filthy and derogatory" was found in mailboxes of about a dozen students. Letters also were received through the mail by members of Alpha Epsilon Pi, a fraternity made up mostly of Jewish students, he added.

Telephone Removed From Laundry's Wall

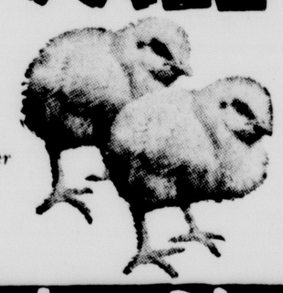

A thief made a "walkie-talkie" out of a public telephone in a St. Clair Ave. coin laundry early today, police reported.

The intruder ripped the phone off the wall and walked away with it, including the contents of the coin box, officers said. Owned by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., the instrument was taken from the Patterson-Wetzel Laundry at 932 St. Clair Ave. Patrolman Paul C. Blevins discovered the theft at 1:50 a. m. while on routine patrol.

A search of the area failed to disclose any trace of the phone, he said.

Vertical distance, not height, originally was the object of pole vaulting.

Gratifying Year, Stinson Reports At National Steel

Sales during 1966 were above $1 billion for the second consecutive year; production of steel, at 8,860,000 tons, reached a new record high; $39,454,100 was paid in dividends, an all-time high, and the company's facilities improvement and expansion program advanced substantially, with major units nearing their completion dates in 1967.

IN 1966, National Steel invested $128 million in new plants and equipment and raw materials properties. This was an increase of approximately $8 million over 1965's strong capital spending program, the report points out, and was second only to 1960.

National Steel expects to spend approximately $100 million this year in its currently authoried expansion and modernization programs, stockholders were informed. Since debt securities were last issued in 1959, the company has paid out $714 million for its capital programs and long-term debt reduction. This expenditure, the report notes, is more than the net plant investment carried on the company's books.

"We look forward confidently to the benefits which we will begin to realize in 1967 from the major new facilities which will start operating this year," Stinson said.

Construction efforts in 1966 centered most heavily on the "Steel Mill of the Future" at the Weirton Steel Division and on the National Steel Pellet Co. pelletiing plant at Keewatin, Minn. Initial operations of the pellet plant are scheduled for early this year. Various elements of the "Steel Mill of the Future" will come into operation later in 1967.

OTHER activities at National Steel during 1966, described in the annual report, include the introduction of Weirchrome, a revolutionary new, chrome-plated steel for container use; the installation of a fifth continuous hot-dip galvanizing line at the Weirton Steel Division; progress on the facilities improvement program at the Great Lakes Steel Division; acquisition of the assets of Robinson Brothers, Inc., a service center at Des Moines, Iowa, and other less imposing but highly important programs at numerous other National Steel locations.

Profits of $71,860,239 in 1966, down from the record high of $87,497,465 in 1965, were adversely affected by an increase of $2,985,000 in depreciation and a decline of $2,665,000 in investment credit, the report states, adding:

"The principal difficulty lies in the continually increasing costs of operation. Costs of virtually all materials, wages, employee benefits and services increased. At the same time, our own prices were adjusted upward by only a modest and insufficient amount in hot and cold-rolled sheets and otherwise they remained stable throughout the year.

"Vigorous as our capital program and cost improvement efforts have been and will continue to be, they did not produce results as swiftly as did the various pressures which have elevated costs particularly in the past two years."

Penalties Set For Juvenile Traffic Cases

LISBON — The driver's license of Michael B. Nocera, 17, of 760 E. 18th St., Salem, was suspended for 15 days Tuesday following a hearing in Columbiana County Juvenile Traffic Court on a charge of reckless operation, specifically a left turn at a high rate of speed.

Robert J. Farnsworth, 17, East Liverpool R. D. 1, and Carol Lee Fisher, 17, Salem R. D. 5, both cited after two-car accidents, lost the right to drive for 10 days and must arrange to pay for damages before the licenses will be returned. Farnsworth was charged with reckless operation and Miss Fisher with driving left of center.

Also "curbed" for 10 days were Charles Junior Mercer, 17, of 234 Church Alley, East Liverpool, cited for failure to stop in an assured clear distance, and Walter Jay Hunston Jr., 17, of 1236 Jennings Ave., Salem, charged with improper passing.

Clarence W. Bailey, 17, of 2152 Michigan Ave., East Liverpool, was fined $10 for failure to stop in an assured clear distance, a charge filed after a two-car accident March 14 at Pennsylvania Ave. and Boyce St.

William H. Matevich, 17, New Waterford, charged with driving an unsafe vehicle, had to surrender his permit to the Highway Patrol until the car passes inspection.

Clifford E. Barber, 15, Salineville R. D. 1, was placed in detention until Saturday afternoon. The under-age driver was in a traffic accident. He was ordered not to apply for a permit until his 16th birthday in June.

Pilot Credited With Preventing Serious Mishap

CLEVELAND (AP)—"It happened just as we touched the ground," an 18-year-old girl said of her brush with disaster Wednesday aboard a jet airliner.

An Eastern Air Lines Boeing 727 blew four tires on a landing at Cleveland Hopkins International Airport and skidded about 2,000 feet. No one was injured.

"It was bouncing up and down and back and forth," said Mary Lasko of Lakewood. "But the pilot stopped it pretty quickly. We all thought he did a marvelous job."

Airport spokesmen credit the pilot, Robert Pitts, 52, of Miami, Fla., with preventing a serious accident by keeping the plane on the runway and off the soft grass.

Airport officials said the plane might have flipped over if it had veered off the runway.

The three-engine jet from Miami carried 25 passengers and a crew of six. The plane stopped in Pittsburgh, where Miss Lasko got on, and the flight ended here.

Auger Hurts LaCroft Man

A LaCroft man hurt at work was admitted Wednesday to City Hospital, where a Pennsylvania man and a Wellsville girl, injured in separate accidents, were treated.

Raymond McClure of 5th Ave., LaCroft, employed by the C. and W. Auger Co. at Beaver Falls, was in "fairly good" condition today at City Hospital with injuries of the right hand received when an auger slipped.

Anti-Semitic Letters Sent Akron Students

AKRON, Ohio (AP) — Anti-Semitic literature and letters have been sent to students at the University of Akron in the last three weeks, according to university officials.

Richard L. Hansford, dean of student services, said Wednesday that literature he described as "filthy and derogatory" was found in mailboxes of about a dozen students. Letters also were received through the mail by members of Alpha Epsilon Pi, a fraternity made up mostly of Jewish students, he added.

Telephone Removed From Laundry's Wall

A thief made a "walkie-talkie" out of a public telephone in a St. Clair Ave. coin laundry early today, police reported.

The intruder ripped the phone off the wall and walked away with it, including the contents of the coin box, officers said.

Owned by the Ohio Bell Telephone Co., the instrument was taken from the Patterson-Wetzel Laundry at 932 St. Clair Ave. Patrolman Paul C. Blevins discovered the theft at 1:50 a. m. while on routine patrol.

A search of the area failed to disclose any trace of the phone, he said.

Vertical distance, not height, originally was the object of pole vaulting.

LINDA KUPCHINSKY
Will Marry In July.

Local Residents Bare Daughter's Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kupchinsky of Radio Heights announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Linda J. Kupchinsky, to Phillip D. Schandel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Schandel of Canton.

The bride-to-be was graduated from East Liverpool High School and the Mercy Hospital School of X-ray Technology at Canton. She is employed as a registered radiologic technologist at Timken Mercy Hospital.

Her fiance is a graduate of Central Catholic High School, John Carroll University and the Ohio State School of Law. He currently is working on a master's degree in business administration at Akron University.

The wedding will take place July 29.

Sharlene Anne Williams, Keith Allen Sayre Marry

A floor-length gown of Chantilly lace was worn by Miss Sharlene Anne Williams when she became the bride of Keith Allen Sayre the evening of March 11 at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Methodist Church of Wellsville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert O. Williams of 1818 Nevada St., Wellsville. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Sayre of Lawrenceville.

The Rev. Jack Hampton and the Rev. George Johnson officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with carnations, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Helen Sullivan played a half-hour recital of organ music.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of Chantilly lace. The basque bodice was designed with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long, pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was formed of lace tiers. A double-ruffle accented the Watteau train.

Her butterfly veil of illusion was attached to a petal and pearl headpiece. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of carnations, lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis. All the traditions were observed.

Miss Rebecca Williams, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She appeared in a floor - length gown of shell pink, embroidered nylon. She wore a matching Dior headpiece and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Sayre, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Crystal LaClair, niece of the bride. They were attired in floor - length gowns of mint green nylon, dotted Swiss and carried Colonial bouquets of carnations tinted to match their gowns.

Kenneth Sayre served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Howard Williams and Karl Sayre. Johnny Hanselman was ring-bearer.

MRS. KEITH SAYRE
Has Double-Ring Rites.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of beige with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother a turquoise dress with white accessories. Corsages of white carnations complemented their attire.

Pink and white decorations were used in the bridal appointments. The buffet table was centered with a three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Aides were Mrs. Crisona LaClair and Mrs. Clarence Fields.

The bride, who was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1966, is employed at McGeehan's Restaurant.

Her husband is a 1962 graduate of Chester High School and served in the Navy. He is an employe of CATV of Ohio Valley, Inc.

Area Residents Wed In Rites At East Palestine

Mrs. Irene Istnick of East Palestine and Robert P. Wolfe of Cannons Mills were united in marriage Friday evening at 6:30 o'clock in the Centenary Methodist Church of East Palestine.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morris were attendants.

LINDA KUPCHINSKY
Will Marry In July.

Local Residents Bare Daughter's Wedding Plans

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kupchinsky of Radio Heights announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Linda J. Kupchinsky, to Phillip D. Schandel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Schandel of Canton.

The bride-to-be was graduated from East Liverpool High School and the Mercy Hospital School of X-ray Technology at Canton. She is employed as a registered radiologic technologist at Timken Mercy Hospital.

Her fiance is a graduate of Central Catholic High School, John Carroll University and the Ohio State School of Law. He currently is working on a master's degree in business administration at Akron University.

The wedding will take place July 29.

Sharlene Anne Williams, Keith Allen Sayre Marry

A floor-length gown of Chantilly lace was worn by Miss Sharlene Anne Williams when she became the bride of Keith Allen Sayre the evening of March 11 at 7:30 o'clock in the Central Methodist Church of Wellsville.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert O. Williams of 1818 Nevada St., Wellsville. The bridegroom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Sayre of Lawrenceville.

The Rev. Jack Hampton and the Rev. George Johnson officiated for the double-ring ceremony before an altar banked with carnations, palms and candelabra. Mrs. Helen Sullivan played a half-hour recital of organ music.

GIVEN IN marriage by her father, the bride wore a full-length gown of Chantilly lace. The basque bodice was designed with a scalloped Sabrina neckline and long, pointed sleeves. The bouffant skirt was formed of lace tiers. A double-ruffle accented the Watteau train.

Her butterfly veil of illusion was attached to a petal and pearl headpiece. She wore a pearl necklace, the gift of the bridegroom, and carried a cascade bouquet of carnations, lily-of-the-valley and stephanotis. All the traditions were observed.

Miss Rebecca Williams, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She appeared in a floor - length gown of shell pink, embroidered nylon. She wore a matching Dior headpiece and carried a Colonial bouquet of pink carnations and stephanotis.

Bridesmaids were Miss Brenda Sayre, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Crystal LaClair, niece of the bride. They were attired in floor - length gowns of mint green nylon, dotted Swiss and carried Colonial bouquets of carnations tinted to match their gowns.

Kenneth Sayre served as his brother's best man. Ushers were Howard Williams and Karl Sayre. Johnny Hanselman was ring-bearer.

MRS. KEITH SAYRE
Has Double-Ring Rites.

The mother of the bride chose a dress of beige with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother a turquoise dress with white accessories. Corsages of white carnations complemented their attire.

Pink and white decorations were used in the bridal appointments. The buffet table was centered with a three-tier cake, topped with a miniature bridal couple.

Aides were Mrs. Crisona LaClair and Mrs. Clarence Fields.

The bride, who was graduated from Wellsville High School in 1966, is employed at McGeehan's Restaurant.

Her husband is a 1962 graduate of Chester High School and served in the Navy. He is an employe of CATV of Ohio Valley, Inc.

Two Lincoln High School students were among ten Beaver Valley musicians chosen by the Sewickley Music Club to perform at the annual youth concert held Tuesday afternoon at the Sewickley Presbyterian Church.

Miss Stephanie Golding, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Golding of 337 Beaver Ave., performed "Sonatina Op. 55" by Kuhlau, and "Festival" by Olson, at the piano. She has studied piano for six years, and also plays organ.

Miss Bernice Silverberg, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Silverberg of 925 Ohio Ave., is a freshman and has studied piano for 3½ years. She performed "Rhondo in C" by Beethoven, and "Hayden Sonata D, 1st Movement."

Marriage, Divorce

BELGRADE (AP) — Belgrade city records for the past several years have listed one divorce for every four marriages.

BARBARA ANN BROWN
Engagement Announced.

Wellsville Girl To Wed July 1 In Toronto Rites

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Brown of Suburban Heights, Wellsville, to Ralph Carleton Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Reed of Bloomingdale, Ohio.

Miss Brown, a 1965 graduate of East Liverpool High School, is a sophomore at Kent State University, where she is majoring in physical therapy.

Her fiance was graduated from Wintersville High School and will graduate Saturday from Kent State University, receiving a bachelor of science degree in industrial engineering. He has accepted a position as process engineer with the Dow Corning Corp. at Midland, Mich.

Easter Bonnet Winners Listed

OHIOVILLE — Winners for the Easter bonnet parade were announced during a meeting Tuesday of the Fairview Junior Grange, with Don Richards, master, in charge.

Judy McClinton and Danny Joe Hammond were accepted as new members.

Cindy McGaffick and Denise Gardner will form the lunch committee for a meeting April 4 to which each member is asked to bring a half - dozen cookies.

75 Attend Hookstown Grange Easter Party

HOOKSTOWN — About 75 attended an Easter party for preschool children and their mothers Wednesday afternoon at the Hookstown Grange Hall.

Co-chairmen of the evnt were Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Jack Johnson and Mrs. John S. Laughlin.

The project has been sponsored annually for 13 years by the home economics committee of the Hookstown Grange. Members of the committee baked cookies and cupcakes and packed Easter baskets for each child. Punch was served and games were played.

Granges Eye Newsletter

The project was suggested at a recent county officers' meeting at Highlandtown Grange. Each unit is to present its reaction when Pomona Grange meets May 20 at the Fairfield Grange.

Ray Leatherberry, Highlandtown master, conducted the opening and closing. Charles Morlan of Mt. Nebo, county Grange deputy, was in charge of a discussion on ritualistic work.

The third and fourth degrees will be put on at Bayard Grange in May. Other events announced were the Highlandtown minstrel and Willow Grove square dance, both in April, and the Demeter (seventh degree) banquet June 10 at Highlandtown. Herschel D. Newsom, national Grange master, will speak.

Mrs. Doris Morlan of Mt. Nebo, county home economics committee chairman, announced the following projects for the year: The collection of used eyeglasses, white shirts and greeting cards and a flower show at each grange, with winners to compete at Pomona Grange in August.

The show will have four classes: Driftwood with live or artificial flowers; miniature, live flowers, 3 to 5 inches; holiday arrangements, live or artificial, and live centerpieces with designation of place to be used.

County officers will meet May 8 at the Guilford Grange.

140 Pints Given For Bloodmobile In Stop At Lisbon

LISBON — Community residents donated a record 140 pints of blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile from 12 to 6 p. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church.

The largest previous donation was 138 pints in September 1964. The unit visits Lisbon twice a year with a trip quota of 125 pints. Blood given locally is credited to the blood banks at Salem City Hospital and Salem Central Clinic.

Lisbon Registered Nurses Association handled arrangements for the first time. Mrs. William Jones, president, and Mrs. Tom Liggett were in charge.

Benefit Dance Is Set At Clarkson Grange

CLARKSON — Columbiana County Grange youth will hold a benefit dance from 9 to 12 Saturday night at the Clarkson Grange.

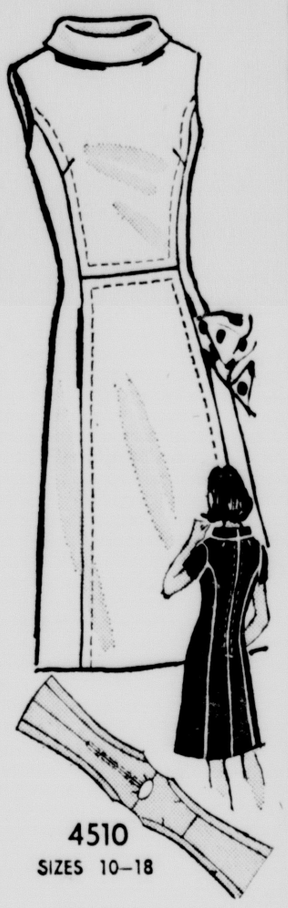

The Playboys will furnish the music and a caller. Proceeds will be used for Grange youth projects.

Leaders explained this is the St. Patrick's public dance which had to be canceled because of snow and ice.

Card Party Planned

The Midland Democrat committee will sponsor a public card party and bake sale April 23 at 7:30 p. m. at the St. Anthony Club of Beaver Ave. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Tom Woods and Mrs. James Adkins. Tickets are available from members of the committee.

Miss Stephanie Golding, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Golding of 337 Beaver Ave., performed "Sonatina Op. 55" by Kuhlau, and "Festival" by Olson, at the piano. She has studied piano for six years, and also plays organ.

Miss Bernice Silverberg, 14, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Silverberg of 925 Ohio Ave., is a freshman and has studied piano for 3½ years. She performed "Rhondo in C" by Beethoven, and "Hayden Sonata D, 1st Movement."

Marriage, Divorce

BELGRADE (AP) — Belgrade city records for the past several years have listed one divorce for every four marriages.

BARBARA ANN BROWN
Engagement Announced.

Wellsville Girl To Wed July 1 In Toronto Rites

Announcement has been made of the engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester M. Brown of Suburban Heights, Wellsville, to Ralph Carleton Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph C. Reed of Bloomingdale, Ohio.

Miss Brown, a 1965 graduate of East Liverpool High School, is a sophomore at Kent State University, where she is majoring in physical therapy.

Her fiance was graduated from Wintersville High School and will graduate Saturday from Kent State University, receiving a bachelor of science degree in industrial engineering. He has accepted a position as process engineer with the Dow Corning Corp. at Midland, Mich.

Easter Bonnet Winners Listed

OHIOVILLE — Winners for the Easter bonnet parade were announced during a meeting Tuesday of the Fairview Junior Grange, with Don Richards, master, in charge.

Judy McClinton and Danny Joe Hammond were accepted as new members.

Cindy McGaffick and Denise Gardner will form the lunch committee for a meeting April 4 to which each member is asked to bring a half - dozen cookies.

75 Attend Hookstown Grange Easter Party

Co-chairmen of the evnt were Mrs. William Thompson, Mrs. Jack Johnson and Mrs. John S. Laughlin.

The project has been sponsored annually for 13 years by the home economics committee of the Hookstown Grange. Members of the committee baked cookies and cupcakes and packed Easter baskets for each child. Punch was served and games were played.

Granges Eye Newsletter

The project was suggested at a recent county officers' meeting at Highlandtown Grange. Each unit is to present its reaction when Pomona Grange meets May 20 at the Fairfield Grange.

Ray Leatherberry, Highlandtown master, conducted the opening and closing. Charles Morlan of Mt. Nebo, county Grange deputy, was in charge of a discussion on ritualistic work.

The third and fourth degrees will be put on at Bayard Grange in May. Other events announced were the Highlandtown minstrel and Willow Grove square dance, both in April, and the Demeter (seventh degree) banquet June 10 at Highlandtown. Herschel D. Newsom, national Grange master, will speak.

Mrs. Doris Morlan of Mt. Nebo, county home economics committee chairman, announced the following projects for the year: The collection of used eyeglasses, white shirts and greeting cards and a flower show at each grange, with winners to compete at Pomona Grange in August.

The show will have four classes: Driftwood with live or artificial flowers; miniature, live flowers, 3 to 5 inches; holiday arrangements, live or artificial, and live centerpieces with designation of place to be used.

County officers will meet May 8 at the Guilford Grange.

140 Pints Given For Bloodmobile In Stop At Lisbon

LISBON — Community residents donated a record 140 pints of blood to the Red Cross Bloodmobile from 12 to 6 p. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church.

The largest previous donation was 138 pints in September 1964. The unit visits Lisbon twice a year with a trip quota of 125 pints. Blood given locally is credited to the blood banks at Salem City Hospital and Salem Central Clinic.

Lisbon Registered Nurses Association handled arrangements for the first time. Mrs. William Jones, president, and Mrs. Tom Liggett were in charge.

Benefit Dance Is Set At Clarkson Grange

CLARKSON — Columbiana County Grange youth will hold a benefit dance from 9 to 12 Saturday night at the Clarkson Grange.

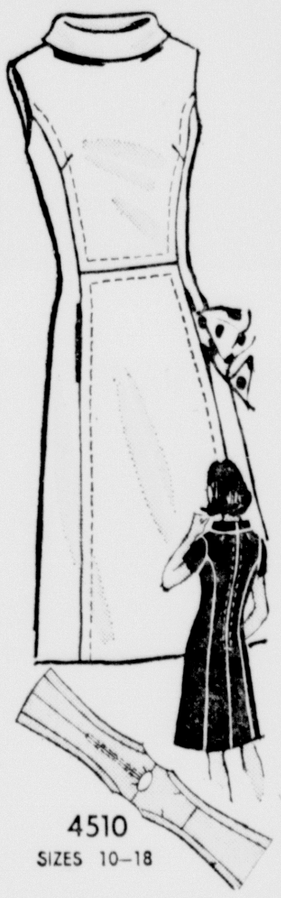

The Playboys will furnish the music and a caller. Proceeds will be used for Grange youth projects.

Leaders explained this is the St. Patrick's public dance which had to be canceled because of snow and ice.

Card Party Planned

The Midland Democrat committee will sponsor a public card party and bake sale April 23 at 7:30 p. m. at the St. Anthony Club of Beaver Ave. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Tom Woods and Mrs. James Adkins. Tickets are available from members of the committee.

Girl, 16, Chosen Beaver County FHA President

Dolores Carothers, 16, a sophomore at Western Beaver High School, was elected president of the Beaver County Future Homemakers of America Monday at the high school. She and other County officers will be installed April 4 at Aliquippa High School at a banquet which will be the last meeting of the 1966-67 school year.

Elections of FHA County officers rotate from school to school. The officers for 1967-68 were chosen from Western Beaver, president; Aliquippa, vice president; Beaver Falls, secretary; Freedom, treasurer; Rochester, parlimentarian, and Hopewell, news reporter.

Dolores is now secretary of the Western Beaver FHA and is county news reporter. She is taking the commercial course at school.

Mrs. Dennis Cambier is adviser of the Western Beaver FHA.

Not Honk Kong?

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Girl Scout leaders here presented Lady Baden-Powell of England a set of spoons with the seal of Kansas on the handle as a souvenir gift of her visit here. They hoped she didn't notice that the fine print on the back of the spoon handles noted they were "Made in Norway."

Good Friday Services Set

The Union Good Friday services will be held tomorrow at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church from noon to 3 p.m. under auspices of the East Liverpool Ministerial Association.

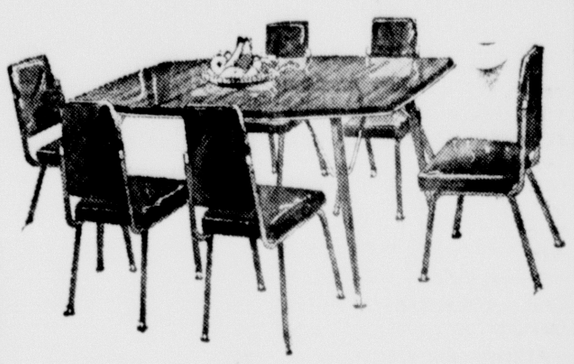

Participating will be the Rev. E. C. Traylor, First Church of Christ; the Rev. H. Gene Toot, Trinity United Presbyterian; the Rev. Richard Shipley, Longs Run United Presbyterian; the Rev. Joseph Varner Sr., chaplain at City Hospital; Carl Mansfield, superintendent of the Rescue Mission; the Rev. Philip Carl of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist; the Rev. Allen Conway of the First Methodist, and the Rev. Edward Harris of the Second Baptist.

Valuable Signature

AVELINO, Italy — A parchment sheet bearing the signatures of Martin Luther, leader of the German Reformation, and of Italian Prince Orsini has been found in an old urn in the garden of a monastery in this city inland from Naples. The document, bearing the date of 1520, has been taken to Naples for examination by experts.

Projects Set For Beaver's State Roads

Eleven highway projects have been added to the Pennsylvania Highway Commission program in Beaver County — one in the Midland area — a report from the commission indicates.

The projects will cost some $21 million for 35 miles of work.

The Commission program does not include maintenance work and resurfacing projects.

To add the projects for Beaver County will require an increase in operator fees and vehicle registrations as well as a $600 million borrowing authorization, Bartlett said.

Projects scheduled for Beaver County, include:

Widen and resurface to 24-feet Route 204 Ohio State Line East, 0.9 miles.

Widen to 24-feet, Route 168-30 to Hookstown, Greene Township, 1.5 miles.

Widen to 24-feet, Route 168, Washington County Line to Route 538, Hanover and Greene Townships, 7.8 miles.

Reconstruct to 24-feet relocation, Route 288 to Butler County Line, Franklin Township, 7.3 miles.

Four lane divided relocation, Route 51, Ohio line to Route 204, 1.6 miles.

Convert to limited access, Route 51, Beaver Valley Expressway, 8.1 miles.

Widen to 48-feet, Route 294 Aliquippa Borough and Hopewell Township 0.5 miles.

Reconstruct to 22-feet, Route 989, Knob to New Sewickley Township, 1.2 miles.

The first U.S. earth satellite, Explorer I, was launched from Cape Kennedy (then Cape Canaveral), Fla., on Jan. 31, 1958.

AFTER BEING TOLD TO LEAVE the heatless dormitory of the suddenly bankrupt Juliet Gibson Career and Finishing School at Philadelphia, Elizabeth Burich, left, of New Milford, N.J., and Rose Fareri of New Brunswick, N.J., wait for their parents to come and pick them up. The school closed with no notice and 183 girls were forced to leave the dormitory in a hurry. The school was owned by Juliet Gibson, Inc., of Houston, Tex., which filed bankruptcy papers earlier this month. It was one of several Gibson schools throughout the nation affected. (UPI Telephoto)

UN Unit Cited In Kidnap Of Red Defector

PANMUNJOM, Korea (AP) — North Korea accused the U.N. Command today of kidnaping a Communist newsman who defected at this truce village, and demanded his immediate return.

U.S. Army Col. George F. Charlton, secretary of the U.N. Command, rejected the Red demand and said that Lee Sookeun, 44, vice president of the official North Korean Central News Agency, had defected to South Korea of his own initiative.

"The choice of an individual to decide where to live is a basic right of the peoples in all free nations," Charlton told North Korean Col. Han Chu-kyong.

Lee fled from the Armistice Commission hut Wednesday in a car with U.S. Lt. Col. Donald E. Thomson as Communist guards fired at least 40 bullets at them. Charlton protested the guards' action and accused them of "reckless" shooting.

Col. Han retorted that the guards fired because it was an "abnormal" situation in which a Communist newsman was being abducted.

Members Win Prizes At Midland Coin Club

The club made plans to hold a membership drive and discussed ways to secure materials for auctions. The next meeting will be April 18 at 8 p. m.

Second baseman Jim Lefebvre of the Los Angeles Dodgers will be tried at third base this spring. He played 40 games at the spot last season.

Crashes Tied To Wet Roads

Wet roads were blamed for three accidents investigated early today by the Highway Patrol at Lisbon. One motorist was cited.

A pickup truck operated by Harry Buckholz, 38, of Rogers R. D. 1 skidded on the wet pavement and struck a guardrail along the side of the highway on Route 30, four - tenths a mile north of East Liverpool at 1:30 a. m.

Buckholz was injured slightly, but did not require treatment.

Richard Beadnell, 26, of West End, Salineville, was cited for speed in excess of road conditions after his car went off Route 30 and hit a fence and pole three and seven-tenths miles west of Route 9 at 5:50 a. m., officers said. He was westbound.

A car operated by Gloria Carter, 22, of 59 E. Main St., Salineville, struck a utility pole along Route 644, a tenth of a mile east of Route 30 at 6:45 a. m. She was westbound when the car skidded off the right side, officers said. She suffered bruises and abrasions, but was not treated. There was no citation.

No one was injured in a mishap Wednesday at 9:30 p. m. on the Lake Marwin Rd. about 30 feet east of County Rd. 427, officers said.

A car operated by Dana Whiteman, 16, of 1902 Chester Ave. became stuck in a ditch. Another operated by Philip Constantino, 18, of 531 Washington St., Newell, struck the side of the disabled vehicle. Constantino was southbound on County Rd. 427 and made a right turn onto the other road, officers said. No one was cited.

Although frightened ostriches may lie flat, they never bury their heads in the sand. They meet trouble headon with a powerful forward kick. Their feet are armed with sharp three-inch toenails.

Woman Receives 1 To 5 Years In Lisbon Hearing

LISBON — Mrs. Rosemary Marchbanks, 35, of Dungannon, Hanoverton R.D. 1, was sentenced Wednesday in Common Pleas Court to 1 to 5 years in the Women's Reformatory at Marysville.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard handed down the sentence less than three weeks after placing her on probation for a burglary last June at the Glenn Broomall residence on S. Lincoln Ave., Salem.

From evidence presented yesterday, Judge Buzzard found that Mrs. Marchbanks stole two plastic coin purses containing $19.70 and an envelope containing $6.40 March 14 from the principal's office at United School.

Sheriff's Deputy Howard Gray obtained a search warrant from Judge Buzzard after receiving a report from school personnel. They said Mrs. Marchbanks came to the office for a consultation about her daughter and was left alone for a short time. Principal James Gow and Mrs. Fred Zeigler, the secretary, returned to find the office empty. They could not find the coin purses which belonged to Mrs. Zeigler or the envelope with money for pupils' pictures.

Gray and Richard Rose, adult probation officer, searched the Marchbanks home and found several items which Mrs. Zeigler identified as having been in the purses. The money was not recovered.

Mrs. Marchbanks admitted yesterday on the stand that she took the envelope and "one coin purse."

In granting probation March 2, Judge Buzzard said that Mrs. Marchbanks needed help and directed her to visit the county Mental Health Clinic weekly.

Mrs. Marchbanks, whose husband is a long-distance truck driver, has four children.

...'CAUSE MOM'S GOT A NEW FLAME!

All the relatives are talking.

For the first time in years, the whole family is leaving town on a well-earned vacation . . . thanks to Mom's new flame. (A hard working, good-looking, clean-cut type. Really sweet-talked Mom. Even convinced Dad.)

Mom's new flame is her new Gas furnace. And this dependable new Gas furnace is slashing those heating bills to about one-third the cost of the electric heating they had in their old house. Gas heat is saving Dad up to several hundred dollars each year in heating bills. And with that kind of money saved . . . live a little! After all, that modern Gas furnace will save more money next year . . . and more money the year after that . . . and the year after that . . .

Modern Gas heat not only warms the house, it warms the heart. It's a breath of clean, fresh air circulating throughout the house—including the basement.

All this at about one-third the cost of heating with electricity. In just a few years you'll save enough to send someone to college. Think of all the things you can do with the money you save with Gas!

Woman Receives 1 To 5 Years In Lisbon Hearing

LISBON — Mrs. Rosemary Marchbanks, 35, of Dungannon, Hanoverton R.D. 1, was sentenced Wednesday in Common Pleas Court to 1 to 5 years in the Women's Reformatory at Marysville.

Judge Raymond S. Buzzard handed down the sentence less than three weeks after placing her on probation for a burglary last June at the Glenn Broomall residence on S. Lincoln Ave., Salem.

From evidence presented yesterday, Judge Buzzard found that Mrs. Marchbanks stole two plastic coin purses containing $19.70 and an envelope containing $6.40 March 14 from the principal's office at United School.

Sheriff's Deputy Howard Gray obtained a search warrant from Judge Buzzard after receiving a report from school personnel. They said Mrs. Marchbanks came to the office for a consultation about her daughter and was left alone for a short time. Principal James Gow and Mrs. Fred Zeigler, the secretary, returned to find the office empty. They could not find the coin purses which belonged to Mrs. Zeigler or the envelope with money for pupils' pictures.

Gray and Richard Rose, adult probation officer, searched the Marchbanks home and found several items which Mrs. Zeigler identified as having been in the purses. The money was not recovered.

Mrs. Marchbanks admitted yesterday on the stand that she took the envelope and "one coin purse."

In granting probation March 2, Judge Buzzard said that Mrs. Marchbanks needed help and directed her to visit the county Mental Health Clinic weekly.

Mrs. Marchbanks, whose husband is a long-distance truck driver, has four children.

...'CAUSE MOM'S GOT A NEW FLAME!

All the relatives are talking.

For the first time in years, the whole family is leaving town on a well-earned vacation . . . thanks to Mom's new flame. (A hard working, good-looking, clean-cut type. Really sweet-talked Mom. Even convinced Dad.)

Mom's new flame is her new Gas furnace. And this dependable new Gas furnace is slashing those heating bills to about one-third the cost of the electric heating they had in their old house. Gas heat is saving Dad up to several hundred dollars each year in heating bills. And with that kind of money saved . . . live a little! After all, that modern Gas furnace will save more money next year . . . and more money the year after that . . . and the year after that . . .

Modern Gas heat not only warms the house, it warms the heart. It's a breath of clean, fresh air circulating throughout the house—including the basement.

All this at about one-third the cost of heating with electricity. In just a few years you'll save enough to send someone to college. Think of all the things you can do with the money you save with Gas!

Court Schedules Annual Amnesty For Good Friday

Continuing a custom inaugurated when he assumed the bench over seven years ago, Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said today Good Friday amnesty will be granted to prisoners in City Jail tomorrow so that they may attend religious services, if they wish.

Any prisoners confined to the local jail on sentences imposed in misdemeanor charges will be released early Friday morning under the judge's order. He has followed the practice annually since 1960.

"I recognize that Good Friday is one of the highest religious holidays on the Christian calendar and I feel that no one, including persons behind bars, should be denied the right to participate in services in the church of their choice," he said.

The court also furnishes Thanksgiving dinners annually for city prisoners and grants jail release at Christmas to persons held on minor charges.

The Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C., has an unsurpassed collection of 20,000 skulls, about 100 of which show the effects of pre-historic surgery.

star witness for Garrison in last week's emotional court hearing, made a surprise appearance before the grand jury before the announcement of the indictment.

Russo told the three-judge court last week he heard Shaw, Ferrie and Oswald plotting in mid-September 1963 to kill Kennedy. Shaw is the only one of the conspirators named in the indictment still alive.

Gordon Novel, 29, who testified before the grand jury on March 16, was subpoenaed for another appearance today but he turned up in Columbus, Ohio, where he said he did not want to return here without a guarantee of immunity from "harassment."

He said he knew Shaw "but not in connection with this." He also said he "indirectly" knew a "David Ferrie," but did not know Russo.

Novel was quoted in Columbus as describing the Garrison investigation as "a fraud' and that he first helped the district attorney but "Garrison double-crossed me."

Previously he had told a newsman here he thought Garrison wanted to question him about activities "during 1961 which are related to Mr. Sergio Arcacha Smith."

Arcacha, now a Dallas resident, said he never heard of Novel. Arcacha headed an anti-Castro group here in 1961 which had offices in a small camp street building about five blocks from Canal Street. Some of the vey Oswald here in August 1963 had the same address.

Dairies Deny Milk Action Hurts Supply

Whether or not the milk dumping in Beaver County is having any effect on supplies remained uncertain today as National Farm Organization farmers claimed it is and dairy spokesmen said it isn't.

Seventeen attended a meeting of farmers at the Beaver County Courthouse Wednesday night when aims and organization plans of the NFO were outlined.

It was reported some 10,000 gallons of milk have been dumped in northern Beaver County since last Friday and 2,000 gallons have been dumped in southern Beaver County.

Ronald Grogg of Fombel discussed milk grade prices and the need for farmers to get a better return on their products.

The NFO leaders say the holding action is causing shortages for dairies and claimed in some cases reconstituted milk—made from powdered milk—is being distributed.

A spokesman said any housewife finding lumps in bottled milk should recognize it as powdered and should report it to health authorities if it is not marked powdered.

Further NFO meetings are planned later in the week.

Meanwhile, Gov. Raymond Shafer appealed to residents of areas affected by "milk withholding" to abstain from any actions which could bring harm to person or property.

Scattered outbreaks of vandalism have been reported in Western Pennsylvania since the National Farmer's Organization called on its members to dump their milk in an effort to create a shortage and raise the price.

"We will not tolerate lawlessness in Pennsylvania," the governor said, adding that he has instructed the State Police to increase their patrols in potential trouble spots and prosecute offenders.

Shafer also asked milk haulers to rearrange their schedules to take maximum advantage of the added protection.

At the peak of the cattle drives on the old Santa Fe Trail in 1884, eight million head of cattle from Texas passed through the town of Dodge City, Kan., according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Youths Fined After Crash

A Hookstown area youth whose car rammed a tree near Aliquippa early today and three other teen-agers with him have been charged with violation of Pennsylvania liquor laws by police.

John A. Stewart, Jr., 18, of Hookstown R.D. 1 lost control of his car while heading west on Brodhead Rd., Center Township, and it struck a maple tree and shrubs at a home.

He and Thomas Mark, 19, and Norman Jones, 18, both of Aliquippa and a 16-year-old Aliquippa juvenile were charged with illegal possession of liquor for those under 21.

The three older youths were fined $25 and costs and released to the custody of their parents. The younger boy was taken to Allencrest Juvenile Home.

All were treated at Aliquippa Hospital for bruises and abrasions after the mishap at 1:45 a. m.

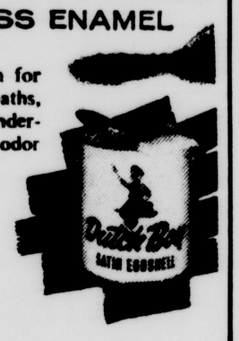

There was $1,500 damage to the car and $300 damage to the home's property, officers said.

It was reported some 10,000 gallons of milk have been dumped in northern Beaver County since last Friday and 2,000 gallons have been dumped in southern Beaver County.

Ronald Grogg of Fombel discussed milk grade prices and the need for farmers to get a better return on their products.

The NFO leaders say the holding action is causing shortages for dairies and claimed in some cases reconstituted milk—made from powdered milk—is being distributed.

A spokesman said any housewife finding lumps in bottled milk should recognize it as powdered and should report it to health authorities if it is not marked powdered.

Further NFO meetings are planned later in the week.

Meanwhile, Gov. Raymond Shafer appealed to residents of areas affected by "milk withholding" to abstain from any actions which could bring harm to person or property.

Scattered outbreaks of vandalism have been reported in Western Pennsylvania since the National Farmer's Organization called on its members to dump their milk in an effort to create a shortage and raise the price.

"We will not tolerate lawlessness in Pennsylvania," the governor said, adding that he has instructed the State Police to increase their patrols in potential trouble spots and prosecute offenders.

Shafer also asked milk haulers to rearrange their schedules to take maximum advantage of the added protection.

At the peak of the cattle drives on the old Santa Fe Trail in 1884, eight million head of cattle from Texas passed through the town of Dodge City, Kan., according to the Encyclopaedia Britannica.

Youths Fined After Crash

A Hookstown area youth whose car rammed a tree near Aliquippa early today and three other teen-agers with him have been charged with violation of Pennsylvania liquor laws by police.

John A. Stewart, Jr., 18, of Hookstown R.D. 1 lost control of his car while heading west on Brodhead Rd., Center Township, and it struck a maple tree and shrubs at a home.

He and Thomas Mark, 19, and Norman Jones, 18, both of Aliquippa and a 16-year-old Aliquippa juvenile were charged with illegal possession of liquor for those under 21.

The three older youths were fined $25 and costs and released to the custody of their parents. The younger boy was taken to Allencrest Juvenile Home.

All were treated at Aliquippa Hospital for bruises and abrasions after the mishap at 1:45 a. m.

There was $1,500 damage to the car and $300 damage to the home's property, officers said.

World's largest nation is the Soviet Union, which stretches 6,000 miles from the Polish border to the Bering Sea. It could encompass the United States, with five million square miles to spare.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I am an information operator for the telephone company. For years I have read the pet gripes of others in your column, and now I want to air mine.

You would not believe the abuse an information operator takes from the public in a normal day's work. To begin with, we are available for a special service. Most people who call information are too lazy to look up the number, so we are doing them a favor.

It is unreasonable to expect the person calling to know the correct spelling of the name he is inquiring about? You'd be surprised at the people who become nasty when questioned. Also, they get belligerent when asked for an address or a first name or initial.

I have had women as well as men use obscene language and shout such things as, "Hurry up, you ignorant broad. I don't have all day!"

Since everyone reads your column, will you kindly print my letter and ask your readers this question: "When you last asked information to help you, were you courteous?" — GOODBY CENTRAL.

Dear Central: From now on I'm going to be extra polite to "Information.' Thanks for the reminder.

Silence Is Golden

Dear Ann: When our 19-year-old soldier son was home on leave recently he asked me to unpack his suitcase. I was warned against throwing away any papers that might be important.

When I went through his suitcase I was sick at what I found. His girl friend had sent him a stack of unbelievably filthy pictures.

I am a woman in my 40s and I did not know such dirty stuff existed.

I was so upset I took the pictures, slipped them into a magazine and hid it.

Our son has left for camp and I have the pictures. Now I don't know what to do with them. Should I send them to him with a note of apology? I want him to know I know what kind of a girl he is going with. Your opinion is needed. — FINDERS WEEPERS.

Dear Finders: There's a law against sending pornography in the mail so you MUST keep the pictures until your son comes home. Then tell him how you happened to have the pictures and say no more. Your silence will speak far more eloquently than anything you could say.

Freedom Fighter

Dear Ann: My husband asked for a divorce 11 months ago so he could marry another woman. It nearly killed me, but I agreed.

He did not marry the woman but he still sees her, I am told. His visiting day to see our children is Sunday but he has been coming over two evenings during the week after the children are in bed. He still cares for me Ann and I'm ashamed to tell you that I am putty in his hands.

I get awfully disgusted with myself for being so weak, but I am helpless. Please advise. — STILL LOVE HIM.

Dear Still: If you want him back for keeps you'll have to add some cement to that putty. Tell him he is not welcome to drop in unexpectedly. If he does, don't let him in the house. Be sure to have a neighbor or relative present on his "visiting day." If he REALLY cares for you he will be unable to tolerate the frustration and he'll let you know it.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Local Band Mothers Conduct Program On 'Father's Night'

"Father's Night" was observed when the East Liverpool Band Mothers met Tuesday night at Memorial Auditorium.

The program included: Tap dance to "The Moon Was Yellow," Pat McKinnon; flute solo, "Suite in A Minor," Karen Simpson, accompanied by Nancy Sturgeon; baton twirling to "On the Ball," Jane Snow.

During the intermission, the "Newry Brood" group entertained. Steve Zubay, guitarist, was featured on the drums for "Wipe Out." Other members of the group are Gary Martin and Jim Gritton, trumpets; Clyde Gaston, sax; Bob Fannin, drums, and Mac Ogilvie, at the chord organ.

Adams announced that the spring concert will be held April 28 at Memorial Auditorium. He said the Concert Band will appear on WSTV, Steubenville, May 21, with the performance to be pre-taped.

Named to the nominating committee were Mrs. George Welker, Mrs. Louis Krawiec and Mrs. William Frail. They will present the slate of officers at the April meeting. Past band mothers will be honored and a jewelry sale featured.

Business was conducted by Mrs. Thomas Snow, president, with a report on the current rummage sale given by Mrs. Charles Gritton, head of the ways and means committee. She asked for additional volunteers for the remainder of the sale, which will end Saturday.

Guests were seated at small tables decorated with Easter chicks on colored grass. A buffet lunch was served at long tables decorated with Easter bunnies, small chicks and pink tapers adorned with pink grass.

Aides assisting the social committee were Pam Mackall, Carol Martin, Judy Sillince, Elaine Smith, Karen Simpson and Nancy Sturgeon.

James Steiner received the most improved speaker award and Al Babb the bull - thrower award at the weekly meeting of the Toastmasters Club Wednesday night at the Ohio Valley Gas Co. office.

Robert Owen was toastmaster; Babb, tabletopics; Francis House, chief evaluator; Robert Harris, speech No. 1; Vincent Laneve, speech No. 3; Charles Cronin, speech No. 7, and Steiner, speech No. 8.

Don Hancock, president, announced that officers will be elected at next week's meeting, with installation April 5.

300 Employes Of NATO Linked To Red Spy Ring

ROME (AP) — An Italian parachutist has reportedly told authorities that 300 employes of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization were involved in a Soviet spy ring being established at every NATO base in Europe.

Those involved were said to be civilians and military personnel from a number of nations, including the United States.

The civilian parachutist, Giorgio Rinaldi, and his wife, Angela Maria, were questioned for more than three hours in Turin Wednesday by a deputy state attorney, Guido Netti-Modona. They were formally charged earlier in the day with spying for the Soviet Union.

A source present at the questioning said authorities were believed to have arrested suspects in Greece, Cyprus, Switzerland and Spain.

Netti-Modona and an Italian defense ministry spokesman declined to comment.

The informant said the espionage organization focused on NATO bases mostly in southern Europe and the Mediterranean. He said it was not believed to have been far along in development.

Slides Screened During Meeting Of Newell Lions

H. Jud English, manager of the Columbiana County Motor Club, screened scenes of Northwestern states and parks during the meeting of the Newell Lions Club Monday night at the IOOF Hall.

The pictures were taken during a 7,000 - mile vacation journey last fall.

The slate of officers for the coming year was submitted by the nominating committee, headed by Richard Brenneman. The election will be April 3.

Fred Allison reported on plans for the light bulb sale the first week of April, with proceeds to be used in community projects. Lawrence Rush is co-chairman.

Gene Miller was welcomed as a new member.

Guests were Richard Rayle and Ed Rogers.

To Support Guaranteed Annual Wage

King Says War Major Civil Rights Obstacle

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., moving into a far more active antiwar role, plans major efforts this year to build support for a guaranteed annual income and better jobs for Negroes.

"I am personally planning to take a much stronger stand against the war in Vietnam," King said in an interview. The war, he said, has become the major obstacle to the civil rights movement.

"I feel it's playing such havoc with our domestic programs that I'm forced into (opposing the war)," King said. The war has shifted attention and resources from the civil rights struggle, he said.

King said he believes civil rights programs will suffer less from his actively opposing the war than from not opposing it. The criticisms, he said, "will be much less than the frustrations and anxieties we will face in not opposing it."

King will speak at an antiwar rally next Saturday in Chicago and then join his first antiwar demonstration in New York April 15.

He said the nation and President Lyndon B. Johnson have become obsessed with the war.

King disclosed he recently made plans for intensive organing of Negro slums as a base to seek a guaranteed annual income and a nationwide campaign for economic improvement of Negroes through bargaining with major businesses.

"We have got to go all out to grapple with this economic problem," he said, talking of his plans for the first time since finishing a book about the racial struggle. Negro slums still retain explosive conditions, he said.

"Nothing much has changed," King said. "I'm afraid we're going to get a repetition of last summer." Rioting erupted in Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha, Neb., and several other cities in 1966.

Chicago again will be a target, King said, in an effort to "highlight or expose the problems of the ghettos through demonstrations." The demonstrations will center on housing and school segregation, he said, and might include marches by Negro pupils to predominantly white schools.

Agricultural Opportunities Outlined During Assemblies

The program team included Jim Stitzline of Loudonville and Mike Phillips of Rising Sun, students in the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University. Ohio State is the only state institution offering baccalaureate and higher degrees in agriculture.

The speakers said there are several job opportunities for every "Ag" school graduate, with the starting salaries for 1967 graduates $7,000 — second only to engineering. One senior already has been hired as a food technician at $8,400.

The other speakers were Clyde Archer, counselor at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics; Joe D. Pittman, county extension agent for agriculture, and Robert Lewis, county extension agent for 4-H, both OSU graduates.

Assemblies were held Monday at East Palestine and United and Tuesday at Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana, Crestview, Beaver Local, Wellsville and Southern.

Archer and the collegians spoke to 4-H'ers and parents Monday night at the Mt. Nebo Grange hall.

Archer said the application of science and business to agriculture has opened career opportunities for young people in business, industry, production, education, research, natural resources management, communications and related services.

Suspension Upheld By Court Of Appeals

The Court of Appeals has upheld a suspension ordered against Ann's New House at 1317 Main St., Wellsville, according to the Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus.

The permits will be suspended 14 days beginning at noon Monday and continuing through noon April 10.

The violation, for sales to minors, occurred May 30, 1965. The appellate court affirmed the judgment of the Franklin County Common Pleas Court and the order of the Liquor Control Commission.

Essex Rules School Must Make Up 3 Days

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Dr. Martin Essex, state superintendent of public instruction, has ruled that Hubbard public schools must make up the three days lost during a strike by teachers last November, but that Youngstown schools do not have to make up the three days lost during a strike at the same time.

Essex explained Wednesday that the make-up time was waived in Youngstown because the schools were unfit for use during the strike due to lack of heat and cleaning services.

Agreement Ends Telephone Strike In Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Bell Telephone Co. and the Pennsylvania Telephone Union announced today agreement on a new contract providing wage increases of $3.50 to $5.50 for about 7,800 employes ending a week-long strike.

W. W. Kinkel, Bell's assistant vice president for labor relations urged affected employes to call their offices to learn when they should return to work.

J. E. Franz, Bell's general personnel manager, and Mrs. Margaret White, union president, said the contract will raise minimum pay scales for operators in such cities as Philadelphia and Pittsburgh from $70 to $73.50 and maximum scales from $91 to $96.50. Supervisors in the same cities will be raised from $101 to $106.50. Reading and Butler, the minimums will be raised from $67 to $70.50 and maximums for supervisors from $98.50 to $103.50.

3 Tracking Networks

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — The National Aeronautics and Space Administration operates three worldwide space tracking networks. They are the Scientific Satellite Network, the Manned Flight Network and the Deep Space Network.

Coast Guard Tows Accused Soviet Ship Toward Alaska

JUNEAU, Alaska (AP) — A Soviet fishing vessel — the second to be accused this month of violating U.S. rights in Alaskan waters — was being towed toward Kodiak today by a Coast Guard cutter.

Capt. Robert Emerson, commander of the Coast Guard station at Kodiak, said the Soviet skipper refused to follow the cutter Storis to port so the vessel was taken under tow. If the Soviet changes his mind and proceeds under his own power the vessels could arrive by late afternoon. The tow would take nearly two days.

The 178-foot trawler, SRTM 8-457, was boarded south of the Shumagin Islands Wednesday after a Coast Guard aircraft had engaged in "hot pursuit" of the vessel for 10 miles.

The Coast Guard said the aircraft, on routine law-enforcement patrol, spotted the trawler fishing 5.5 miles east of Seal Cape in the Shumagins, a violation of the U.S. 12-mile exclusive fisheries zone which went into effect March 17.

The aircraft signaled the ship to heave-to and await arrival of a government ship. Instead, the trawler picked up her fishing gear and headed toward international waters. The Storis overtook the ship 15 miles off shore.

The scene was about 100 miles southwest of the spot the Soviet trawler SRTM 8-413 was seized March 2 for violation of the three-mile territorial limit at Mitrofania Island, some 40 miles southwest of Chignik on the Alaska Peninsula.

Nicolai G. Zernov, skipper of that vessel, was fined $5,000, an amount Alaska Gov. Walter J. Hickel called "measly."

The latest incident, Gov. Hickel said, is strictly a federal problem because the Soviet ship was not accused of violating the three-mile territorial limit.

The maximum penalty would be a $10,000 fine and one year in prison for each person aboard. Soviet trawlers usually carry a crew of 25-30. The vessel is also subject to seizure, forfeiture of cargo and any fish taken in violation of law.

Lisbon Services Resume Friday

LISBON — There will be an interruption tonight in the series of Holy Week services sponsored by the Lisbon Ministerial Association so participating congregations may observe the Lord's Supper individually.

Approximately 145 were present Wednesday night at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church to hear the Rev. Gilbert Thomas of Trinity Friends Church west of Lisbon. The Rev. Charles Bulger of the Bethesda Presbyterian Church at Millport was moderator and the Bethesda Choir sang.

The final community service will be at 1 p.m. Friday in the Trinity U. P., with the Rev. William Ring of St. Jacob's United Church of Christ the speaker.

Five Churches To Hold Services

Five churches will join in union Good Friday services tomorrow at the Longs Run United Presbyterian Church, beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Other participating churches are Anderson Methodist, Calcutta United Presbyterian, Glenmoor United Presbyterian and Madison United Presbyterian.

The Rev. George Miller of the Calcutta church will be the speaker. The theme is "I Am the Resurrection and the Life."

Individual Maundy Thursday Communion services will be held tonight at 7:30 at the five churches.

To Support Guaranteed Annual Wage

King Says War Major Civil Rights Obstacle

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., moving into a far more active antiwar role, plans major efforts this year to build support for a guaranteed annual income and better jobs for Negroes.

"I am personally planning to take a much stronger stand against the war in Vietnam," King said in an interview. The war, he said, has become the major obstacle to the civil rights movement.

"I feel it's playing such havoc with our domestic programs that I'm forced into (opposing the war)," King said. The war has shifted attention and resources from the civil rights struggle, he said.

King said he believes civil rights programs will suffer less from his actively opposing the war than from not opposing it. The criticisms, he said, "will be much less than the frustrations and anxieties we will face in not opposing it."

King will speak at an antiwar rally next Saturday in Chicago and then join his first antiwar demonstration in New York April 15.

He said the nation and President Lyndon B. Johnson have become obsessed with the war.

King disclosed he recently made plans for intensive organing of Negro slums as a base to seek a guaranteed annual income and a nationwide campaign for economic improvement of Negroes through bargaining with major businesses.

"We have got to go all out to grapple with this economic problem," he said, talking of his plans for the first time since finishing a book about the racial struggle. Negro slums still retain explosive conditions, he said.

"Nothing much has changed," King said. "I'm afraid we're going to get a repetition of last summer." Rioting erupted in Chicago, Cleveland, Omaha, Neb., and several other cities in 1966.

Chicago again will be a target, King said, in an effort to "highlight or expose the problems of the ghettos through demonstrations." The demonstrations will center on housing and school segregation, he said, and might include marches by Negro pupils to predominantly white schools.

Agricultural Opportunities Outlined During Assemblies

The program team included Jim Stitzline of Loudonville and Mike Phillips of Rising Sun, students in the College of Agriculture at Ohio State University. Ohio State is the only state institution offering baccalaureate and higher degrees in agriculture.

The speakers said there are several job opportunities for every "Ag" school graduate, with the starting salaries for 1967 graduates $7,000 — second only to engineering. One senior already has been hired as a food technician at $8,400.

The other speakers were Clyde Archer, counselor at the College of Agriculture and Home Economics; Joe D. Pittman, county extension agent for agriculture, and Robert Lewis, county extension agent for 4-H, both OSU graduates.

Assemblies were held Monday at East Palestine and United and Tuesday at Lisbon, Leetonia, Columbiana, Crestview, Beaver Local, Wellsville and Southern.

Archer and the collegians spoke to 4-H'ers and parents Monday night at the Mt. Nebo Grange hall.

Archer said the application of science and business to agriculture has opened career opportunities for young people in business, industry, production, education, research, natural resources management, communications and related services.

Suspension Upheld By Court Of Appeals

The Court of Appeals has upheld a suspension ordered against Ann's New House at 1317 Main St., Wellsville, according to the Ohio Department of Liquor Control at Columbus.

The permits will be suspended 14 days beginning at noon Monday and continuing through noon April 10.

The violation, for sales to minors, occurred May 30, 1965. The appellate court affirmed the judgment of the Franklin County Common Pleas Court and the order of the Liquor Control Commission.

Essex Rules School Must Make Up 3 Days

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)— Dr. Martin Essex, state superintendent of public instruction, has ruled that Hubbard public schools must make up the three days lost during a teachers last November, but that Youngstown schools do not have to make up the three days lost during a strike at the same time.

Essex explained Wednesday that the make-up time was waived in Youngstown because the schools were unfit for use during the strike due to lack of heat and cleaning services.

Agreement Ends Telephone Strike In Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The Bell Telephone Co. and the Pennsylvania Telephone Union announced today agreement on a new contract providing wage increases of $3.50 to $5.50 for about 7,800 employes ending a week-long strike.

W. W. Kinkel, Bell's assistant vice president for labor relations urged affected employes to call their offices to learn when they should return to work.

J. E. Franz, Bell's general personnel manager, and Mrs. Margaret White, union president, said the contract will raise minimum pay scales for operators in such cities as Philadelphia and Pittsburgh from $70 to $73.50 and maximum scales from $91 to $96.50. Supervisors in the same cities will be raised from $101 to $106.50. Reading and Butler, the minimums will be raised from $67 to $70.50 and maximums for supervisors from $98.50 to $102.50.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruse —

DEAR HELOISE: I am an interior decorator.

When I take draperies down for cleaning, I mark on the inside heading of each drapery: "Window No. 1 left," etc. with an indelible ballpoint pen.

As I take the drapery pins out, I use the ballpoint pen to put a dot where each pin will be reinserted. The ballpoint pen mark does not come out in the cleaning.

When rehanging the draperies, I start in the center of the traverse rod, hooking onto the master carrier first.

If extra carriers are on the rod, leave them at the outside ends of the rod or the draperies will not slide easily.

RENA WILLIAMS.

Be sure and make these marks on the inside heading of the facing on the top of your curtain so it won't show when rehung.

I roared with laughter when Rena told us there was a use for ballpoint-pen ink, which we don't have to worry about removing.

And, did you know that while your curtains are down and being cleaned, that you could use paste wax inside those traverse rods? It will make them slide like new again.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's an idea I find both economical and time-saving.

When making bread or rolls, instead of scalding the milk in a pan, just add boiling water to your powdered milk for the liquid.

DELAINE KOLB.

DEAR HELOISE: When your rubber girdle has a small broken place in it, take two pieces of mending tape, put one on the outside and one on the inside of the break, then sew it on your machine with a zig-zag stitch. It will wear and wear.

JANE.

HELOISE.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: We have often seen men dust off the toes of their shoes on the back of their pants leg.

Our shoeshine parlor always has strips of men's wool pants cut up to buff those shoes. The wool really makes them shine.

HENRY O'MALLY.

I can't argue with you Henry. Wool did make our shoes shine beautifully but I just wasn't about to cut up a pair of my husband's pants to see if it differed from the scrap wool I tried.

-:-

DEAR HELOISE: I keep a small squeeze bottle filled with liquid laundry detergent beside my washing machine.

When collars and cuffs need to be scrubbed, I just squirt some in the proper place, rub it in a little, and the clothing then goes into the tub.

No more lugging of heavy jugs or boxes that dump out more than we need.

VIRGINIA DeARMOND.

DEAR HELOISE: To keep those sheet blankets from sliding, I cut one sheet blanket in three equal pieces crosswise and sew one piece to the end of each of the other sheet blankets.

This makes my sheet blankets plenty-long-enough to tuck under the foot of the mattress, and keeps them from sliding and pulling out at the foot. Really great.

DEAR HELOISE: When planting grass seed by hand, I always mix the seed with a bit of kitchen flour. This way I can see where I have thrown the seed and I can sow it far more evenly.

The flour does not hurt the soil at all.

Gas Heater Fumes Kill 2 In Wellsburg

WELLSBURG, W. Va. (AP) — An unvented gas heater was blamed for the death of two persons whose bodies were discovered in an apartment house here Wednesday.

Authorities said 52-year-old William J. Buffington and 19-year - old Thelma Ann Black, both of Wellsburg, were victims of carbon monoxide poisoning from the faulty heater.

PTA Gets Set For Election

A nominating committee was named during the meeting of the Glenmoor Parent - Teacher Association Wednesday night at the school. Mrs. Cathie Clorran, president, presided.

The committee includes Mrs. Lillie Belle Leonard, Mrs. Evelyn Bloor and Mrs. Kathy Wolfe. They will present the slate of officers at the May 16 meeting, when election and installation will be held.

H. Jud English of the Columbiana County Motor Club, guest speaker, screened a film on "Emergencies in the Making." A question - and - answer period followed.

The meeting opened with devotions by Mrs. Beth Steiner, who also read an article, "Life's Recipe," led the Lord's Prayer and the flag salute.

Committee reports were heard, including a report on the Education Development Committee meeting by Mrs. Evelyn Bloor, who attended on behalf of the PTA.

The April meeting will not be held because of the Child Counseling dinner April 18.

Mrs. Steiner's combined second and third grade won the attendance banner.

Road Employes Delay Walkout; Study Pay Offer

MOUNDSVILLE (AP) — State Road Commission hourly employes have pushed back their no - work deadline a week in order to study the SRC's latest proposal.

A spokesman for the SRC employes in District Six, Donald Quigley, said late Wednesday night many of the workers wanted more time to study the 10 per cent wage increase offered Wednesday to the 3,839 hourly employes in the SRC.

Quigley said the offer is inadequate because it offers less than half what the workers demanded, offered no wage stabilization and did not provide for time-and-a-half for overtime after 40 hours.

He said if no further offer is made by 4 p.m. Friday March 31, the employes would stop working.

State Road Commissioner Burl Sawyers said, after the 10 per cent hike was offered, it would cost the SRC an additional $2 million a year.

The work dispute has centered in Marshall County, with SRC workers in Ohio and Wetzel counties supporting the action.

San Francisco's Pacific Stock Exchange opens at 7 a.m. to synchronize its workday with that of the New York Exchange.

Electrical Workers Ratify 3-Year Pact

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Electrical workers at the Alcan Aluminum Corp. plant returned to work today after ratifying a three-year contract that calls for an increase in "excess of 61 cents an hour" over the period of the contract.

Some 105 members of Local 716, International Union of Electrical Workers, approved the pact Wednesday night, ending a strike that started Sunday at midnight.

Union Studies Wage Offers From Council

Proposals for wage increases and improved fringe benefits offered by Council were taken under advisement Wednesday night by a committee representing unionized city employes.

Council's three-man negotiating committee made substantially the same proposition as it gave Tuesday night to representatives of the fire and police departments.

It gave the union two alternate proposals and asked it to choose between them. The first proposition calls for a general 4 per cent wage increase. The second proposal would include a general $10-a-month pay boost and city payment of hospital and surgical insurance premiums for employes' dependents, which now cost the workers $12.99 a month.

Two more fringe benefits were proposed to accompany either of the major propositions. The union was offered an improved vacation plan and two additional paid holidays — Washington's Birthday and Veterans' Day.

The vacation proposal is similar to that offered police and firemen: Two weeks off for one to five years' service, three weeks for five to 15 years and four weeks after 15 years.

The employe group is Local 677, American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employes. It submitted a counter-proposition calling for a $20-a-month raise for all its members on the city payroll; a list of additional work rules and a paid health and welfare plan to become effective March 1, 1968, and to be administered jointly by the city and the union or their designated representatives.

Councilmen Frank Duffy, chairman, Norman Bucher and James Lowe represented Council.

The union committee will report the proposals to the membership.

The councilmen scheduled another meeting Saturday night, expecting by them to have definite word from the finance committee on the city's anticipated income for 1967. The finance committee is in the process of drafting the annual appropriation ordinance, with indications the legislation may be ready for enactment next week.

The city now is operating under a temporary appropriation that expires March 1.

Councilmen promised to contact the employes if there is any change in the city's proposals as a result of the meeting Saturday.

Drivers Forfeit $75 For 4 Cases

Four motorists forfeited appearance bonds totaling $75 today in Municipal Court on speeding charges filed by the Highway Patrol.

All cited on Route 30, the defendants were::

Richard White, 37, of Youngstown, arrested March 14 at 5:35 p. m. on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone; Allan L. Jones, 22, of Cleveland, cited Wednesday at 7:30 a. m. for driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Emory W. Vance, 43, of Kent, cited Wednesday at 6:30 p. m. on a charge of driving 70 miles an hour in a 60-mile zone, and Joseph C. May 23, of Morgantown, arrested Wednesday at 8:10 p. m. on a charge of driving 65 miles an hour in a 50-mile zone.

Jones, Vance and May forfeited $17.50 each. White forfeited $22.50.

Chicago's first International Livestock Exposition, which ranks as the foremost exposition of its kind in the world, began in 1900.

Cubs Receive Pack Awards

Awards were presented during the meeting of Cub Pack 43 Monday night at the Pleasant Heights School. The pack is sponsored by the parent-teacher association.

Recipients of awards were Bobby Hermann and Paul Hermann, bear gold arrow; Ronnie Conkle, wolf badge and gold arrow; Mike Taylor, two-year pin and bear gold arrow; Roy Sweezy, bobcat pin; Jimmy Olmstead, one-year pin; Gregg Vincent, wolf silver arrow; Scott McCoy, denner stripe; John Garner, assistant denner stripe; John Hopper Jr., wolf silver arrow, and Phillip Watson, wolf silver arrow.

Sixty-five attended the meeting, which was opened by Mrs. John Hopper's den 5 with the flag salute.

Jimmy Thompson of Den 4 won the nail-driving contest. Other participants were J. P. Meade, Steve Garner and Mike Taylor.

Den 2 of which Mrs. George Garner and Mrs. John Vincent are den mothers, explained the use of various hand tools, assisted by Cubmaster John Hill.

Robert Arnold, committee chairman, conducted business when plans were made for a scrap paper drive in May in the Pleasant Heights and LaCroft areas. A summer program also is being considered.

The parents' attendance award was won by Mrs. Arnold's Den 4.

Egg Hunt Set For Saturday

IRONDALE — An Easter egg hunt will be held Saturday at noon at the ball field here, with the firemen's Auxiliary in charge.

Anyone wishing to donate colored eggs is asked to leave them at the fire station by 10 Saturday morning or to contact Mrs. Madge Oleski for "pick-up."

A treat will be provided each child following the event.

The Auxiliary will meet April 10 at 7:30 p. m. at the station.

Ill at home with the mumps are Michael Leffler, son of Mrs. Jane Leffler, and Regina Scarbino, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scarbino.

800 Brewery Workers To Vote On Contract

CINCINNATI (AP) — Almost 800 United Brewery Workers Union members vote today on a proposed contract that could be the first step toward ending a week-old strike of three greater Cincinnati breweries.

The proposed three-year contract reportedly involves a $6 weekly raise each year along with increased fringe benefits.

Fair Board OK's Use Of Grounds For Drivers

LISBON — Women enrolled in a school bus drivers' training course planned for June will practice at the Fairgrounds.

J. L. McBride, superintendent of Columbiana County schools, outlined the proposed course for fair directors Wednesday night at the county extension office and received permission to use the race track infield.

The instruction will be for women in all school districts—city, village and rural — and is being arranged by Zygmont Rataiczak of Steubenville, district coordinator of school transportation.

TRAINING will consist of 12 hours of book work and 10 to 15 hours of driving. The Ohio Department of Education will furnish financial support.

Fair directors approved a $2,478.63 allowance for the 1967 Junior Fair, approximately $50 more than last year. It was less, however, than a 1967 budget presented last night by Gary Wilms representing the county 4-H Advisory Council.

Directors said the county commissioners furnish $500 of the total for the Junior Fair and the state provides $1,000. The remaining $978 will come from fair board funds and includes $200 for project judges and $200 for the Junior Fair Board.

The Just Rite 4-H Club of Lisbon - Winona was given permission to change the date of its Fairgrounds horse show from May 7 until some time in June.

The Lyle Printing and Publishing Co. of Salem received the contract to furnish 750 premium books and 5,000 program books on a low bid of $1,250. Gray Kodrich Supplies, Lisbon, submitted a bid of $1,600.

Wives of fair board members met last night to make changes in the culinary arts listings for the premium book. There also will be changes in the grain, beef cattle and subordinate granges departments.

DIRECTORS received word that three acts tentatively booked for the 122nd exposition Aug. 23-27 have canceled because of prior commitments. No longer available are a unicycle and magic act, Accordionist Lou Prohut and J. Fred Muggs, the chimpanzee.

In their places the board booked the Judy Conti dancers, the Four Queens — a rock 'n' roll singing froup — and Tony Rosari and his wonder horse and Rosari's dogs. Other grandstand shows will be Tex Ritter and his band and the Johnny King auto thrill show.

Ben Weingart of Leetonia, president, was in charge. The next meeting will be April 26 at the extension office.

Elkton Soldier Given Promotion

ELKTON — Dennis Dailey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dailey, has been promoted to specialist 4 and named troop commander of his company while serving with the Army in Germany.

Mr. and Mrs. George Eells and family of the Lisbon-Elkton Rd. and Mr. and Mrs. Delmar Harrold attended a flower and home show at Youngstown Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Guthrie and family of Frostburg, Md., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jugenheimer over the weekend. Miss Sharon Jugenheimer returned to Frostburg with Mr. and Mrs. Guthrie for a weeks' visit.

Annual Event Attracts 200 In Jefferson

Miss Helen J. McLane, public relations consultant for the International Harvester Co. of Chicago, was the speaker.

Edgar F. Buchanan of Ross Township and Joseph Rozsa of Smithfield and Cross Creek townships were re-elected supervisors for three - year terms.

Vincent West, who operates a dairy farm near Smithfield, was presented the Goodyear "Outstanding Conservation Farmer Award" and W. O. Cunningham received an award from the district for "outstanding service as a past supervisor." He served for nine years.

The Jefferson district also received an award for attaining the rating of "superior" as determined by the standards of the Distinctive Service Program by the Ohio Federation of Soil Conservation Districts.

Oberlin College Hikes Room And Board Fees

OBERLIN, Ohio (AP)—Room and board at Oberlin College will cost $140 more next fall, the college's board of trustees announced Wednesday.

Board will be $580, up $60 and room will cost $480, up $80. Tuition will remain at $750.

End Wildcat Strike

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Steelworkers went back to their jobs at the Peerless Electric Division of the H. K. Porter Co. Wednesday, ending a two - day wildcat strike.

A company spokesman said about 300 members of Local 5962, United Steelworkers of America, went on strike Monday over unsettled minor grievances. Talks resume today in an effort to settle the grievances.

Man, 62, Bound Over On Charge Of Murder

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Ira Whatley, 62, Youngstown, was bound over to the Mahoning County Grand Jury Wednesday on a first-degree murder charge in the shooting death of Ronald Curry, 28.

Police said Curry, a passenger in Whatley's car, was shot March 11 while the car was stopped at a traffic light.

Convicted Of Robbery

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Two former Alliance men were convicted by a U.S. District Court jury Wednesday for the $69,000 robbery of a Union Savings Trust Co. branch of Warren on Sept. 2, 1965.

The jury eliberated less than an hour in convicting Ernest Holt, 33, Cleveland, and Ren Nicholson, 32, Jr. of Pontiac, Mich. Sentencing was deferred pending a probation report.

Nation's Atomic Power Industry Has Come Long Way

Shippingport Plant 10 Years Old

Ten years ago the nation's first full - scale commercial atomic power plant began operating in Shippingport, Beaver County. This AP Spotlight tells what has happened in the intervening years.

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN

SHIPPINGPORT, Pa. (AP) — The nation's atomic power industry has come a long way in the 10 years since the granddad of all commercial nuclear-powered generating stations went into operation in this rural village.

Some residents of this Ohio River town in Beaver County worried about having a nuclear reactor in their backyard. Others were a bit skeptical as the world focused its attention on the Shippingport Atomic Power Station, hailed in 1957 as America's greatest industrial achievement in its drive to tame the atom for peace.

The fears dissolved after a year and skeptics changed their minds as Shippingport proved the commercial feasibility of producing electricity from the atom.

Ironically, Shippingport lies in the midst of Pennsylvania's soft coal fields. But partly because of what has been learned here, atomic power is on its way to replacing coal and oil as a prime source of energy for electrical power stations.

The boom in the atomic power industry is such that 55 per cent of the new steam-electric generating capacity announced by the nation's utilities in 1966 was for nuclear power plants.

"The future is rosy," says superintendent G. Malcolm Oldham of Duquesne Light Co., which operates the plant jointly with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

"As air pollution laws become more restrictive the utilities will turn even more to atomic power," Oldham predicts. "This will be the thing that drives nuclear power to the forefront."

Shippingport and its 14 offspring operate in an almost antiseptic atmosphere with only the whine of the turbines to indicate to a casual observer the power produced. No smokestacks spew fly ash and dust as with fossil fuels in conventional plants.

The Shippingsport plant is small by comparison with the 26 A—plants in various stages of completion throughout the nation. Shippingport produces 100,000 kilowatt hours of electricity versus a half million to a million kilowatts in the new plants.

It was designed this way--to serve both as a full-time electrical generating station and a test facility to study nuclear power. It was not designed to compete competitively with conventional stations, but to show the way.

Ten years of study have given the industry the knowledge to build bigger and better nuclear stations.

"The technological advancement of the art has been developed here," Oldham explains. "Every phase of the operation since 1957 has been documented and made available through the AEC to industry."

"Until Shippingport went into operation," says an AEC official assigned to Shippingport, "the field of nuclear power reactors was brand new — design, construction and operation was basically unknown."

The public's chief concern with nuclear plants is their safety. Oldham points with obvious pride to the station's safety record showing no accidents of any consequence and none from radiation.

"You learn to live with radiation the way you learn to live with electricity," says Oldham, who has been in charge since the plant opened. "Electricity at home is dangerous enough to kill you. So you learn to live with it. You do the same with an atomic reactor."

The people of Shippingport, about 25 miles northwest of Pittsburgh, did just that.

"There was some fear at first," says Mrs. Leslie Jones, a housewife who owned the general store 10 years ago. "But it all quieted down. I figure when your time comes you'll go whether you live near an atomic plant or not."

INSURANCE SPEAKER. David Field of Columbus, executive director of the Ohio Association of Life Underwriters, will speak at a meeting of the East Liverpool Life Underwriters Friday noon at the Inn Town Motel.

X-Ray Session Slated By County TB Facility

Elma C. Graham, director of the Beaver County Tuberculosis Association, said the regular monthly X-ray session will be held today at the State Clinic located at 487 Hull St., Rochester, from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m.

She said the mobile X-ray unit will be in Midland May 16 from 10 a.m. until 8 p.m., at the USW-CIO Building.

Miss Graham said the X-rays are free to adults and are sponsored by the Easter Seal program.

Nose And Ears Jobs

PRAGUE (AP) — People in Communist Czechoslovakia like a pleasant appearance just as much as people in the West. 140,000 persons were treated in 1965 at the Prague Institute of Cosmetics, the news agency CTK reported, and several hundred got surgical treatment for protruding ears, deformed noses or wrinkles. Many others tried to get rid of "excess fat," CTK said.

Post Office Bids Sought At Waterford

NEW WATERFORD — Postmaster General Lawrence F. O'Brien has announced at Washington that the Post Office Department is seeking competitive bids to build and lease the new post office here.

The purpose of competitive bidding, O'Brien said, "is to encourage the most attractive and economical offer to the government in line with President Johnson's economy program to achieve the best possible postal service at the least possible cost."

Under the department's lease construction program, the site selected on the south side of W. Main St., on part of Lots 8 and 9 in Taylor and Youngs addition to the village, will be assigned to the successful bidder, who will purchase the property, construct the building according to departmental specifications and lease it to the Post Office Department for a basic period of eight years with options to renew the lease for an additional 20 years.

The department's capital investment will be limited substantially to postal equipment. The building will remain under private ownership, with the owner paying local real estate taxes.

Bidding documents may be obtained from Regional Real Estate Officer D. J. Gaughan, P.O. Box 809, Columbus, Ohio 43216.

The real estate officer will supply bidding forms, building specifications, lease provisions and other information. Bids must be submitted to the real estate officer by 2 p.m. April 20.

All bids received as a result of the previous advertisement were rejected, O'Brien explained.

The island of Borneo, with a coastline of about 2,500 miles, has only 15 ports worthy of the name due to its inaccessible river mouths.

More Drinking, Less Smoking Marked '66

CHICAGO (AP) — Americans apparently drank more but smoked less during 1966.

Commerce Clearing House reports that federal excise collections indicate Americans also bought more gasoline, lubricating oil and tires and tubes and traveled more as well.

Liquor and beer accounted for more than $3.8 million, up nearly $42 million from 1965.

Tobacco collections slipped by almost $75 million from the 1965 all - time high of more than $2.1 billion with collections from cigarettes alone falling $65 million to just over the $2 billion mark.

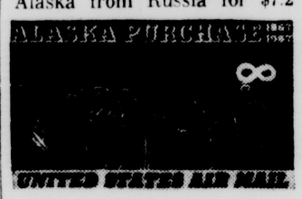

Gasoline tax collections rose from $2.69 billion to $2.82 billion in 1966. Other motoring needs also showed a marked increase.

The saliva glands of the American short - tailed shrew contain a poison similar to that of a cobra, which is death to insects and rodents. It does little hurt to human beings.

Stamps In The News

An Indian totem is the featured design on the Alaska Purchase commemorative 8-cent stamp to be issued March 30 at Sitka, Alaska. The new stamp celebrates the 100th anniversary of the acquisition of Alaska from Russia for $7.2

million. The issuance date is "Seward's Day," a state holiday honoring Secretary of State William H. Seward who negotiated the sale.

The Indian totem on the stamp is a line drawing in white against a background of dark brown. Totems were a family status symbol much like a coat-of-arms. They were usually carved in cedar or cottonwood. The totem on this stamp is based on a Tlingit nation totem now in the Alaska State Museum in Juneau.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may send their addressed envelopes together with remittance to cover the cost of the stamps to be affixed, to the Postmaster, Sitka, Alaska 99835. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 8c Alaska Purchase Stamp." Requests must be postmarked no later than March 30.

THE MINKUS STAMP Journal begins its second year of publication with the Republic of China's first mythical astronaut on the cover — the legendary Lady Chang-O-Flying to the Moon.

There is a two-page spread in full color featuring new stamps from the Republic of China, now based on Taiwan (Formosa). It is interesting to note that the Chinese Post Office on Taiwan has observed a strictly ethical policy of issuing stamps. All Republic of China stamps can be purchased at your local stamp dealer.

The Minkus Stamp Journal also features a 10-page article by Harry Lindquist entitled "My Adventure with Stamps." It covers the extraordinary career of one of philately's most respected personalities and authors. There are many other interesting items and stories for the new or old collector. For the topical collector there is a listing of new issues by topic.

Subscriptions can be ordered directly from Minkus Stamp Journal, 116 W. 32nd St., New York, N. Y. 10001. Rates are $2 a year for four issues.

THE FIRST 6-CENT airmail commemorative postal card ever issued by the United States will be released on March 31 and will mark the 50th anniversary of the purchase of the Virgin Islands. First-day ceremonies will be held at Charlotte Amalie, Virgin Islands.

The stamp on the card is a horizontal design showing the lush green islands above an azure blue gulf stream. The territorial flag is at the left.

The 6-cent card is for use domestically and between the U.S. and its possessions. It is also valid for postage to Canada and Mexico.

Collectors desiring first-day cancellations may submit orders to the Postmaster, Charlotte Amalie, Virgin Islands 00801, plainly indicating the full name and address, including zip code, with remittance to cover the cost which is 6 cents. Requests must be postmarked no later than March 31. The envelope to the Postmaster should be endorsed "First Day Covers 6c Virgin Islands Card."

INTERPEX the International Stamp and Coin Exhibition, will be held in New York March 17-19.

Last year there were 38 countries represented besides the U.S. Post Office Department, the United Nations Postal Administration and the Crown Agents Stamp Bureau. The number is expected to increase this year.

Two Poles Are Hit In Beaver Accidents

A Midland man escaped serious injury when his car slammed into a utility pole in Beaver early today — 40 minutes after a Vanport driver's car had hit another pole in the same block.

Police said Will T. Leavell of 465 Midland Ave. was headed west on 3rd St., Beaver, when the car skidded and struck the pole at 3:32 a. m., demolishing the auto.

Earlier, Albert Miocic of Van-Buren Homes lost control of his car on the snow-slicked street and it also struck a pole.

Not Influx From Out-Of-State

Ohio Population Growth Due To Higher Birth Rate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The growth in Ohio's population over the past 10 years, a study shows, is due to an increased birth rate, and not any influx of people from out-of-state.

And population tends to move to areas of the greatest economic opportunity, the Institute of Social Scientists of Battelle Memorial Institute reported.

The Battelle study, just completed, said the only population moved certain to continue is the one from the central metropolitan areas to the surrounding "bedroom" communities in adjoining counties.

The study showed that 78 of Ohio's 88 counties had population increases during the period 1960-65. Thirty of these counties had more people moving out of the county than into it, but still showed population increases because of births.

Ohio's population was estimated at 10,305,000 as of July 1 last year, an increase of 600,000 over the 1960 census total.

"Viewing the state as a whole, growth in Ohio's population during the past 10 years has resulted entirely from the balance of births over deaths. Since 1955, more people have left the state than entered," the study said.

The Battelle report said migration from county to county is an indicator of the population's adjustment to continuing changes in Ohio's economy and living patterns.

The present migration trends from the hill and strip mining areas of the southeastern and eastern parts of the state is a continuation of a change of emphasis from the use of natural resources to the use of human resources in manufacturing and the service industries.

The study showed that Cuyahoga County had a net outmovement of 66,000 persons, most of them to the surrounding Lake, Geauga or Medina counties. Similar patterns were noted in the Akron, Cincinnati and Dayton metropolitan areas.

The Battelle report of the Toledo, Youngstown and Columbus metropolitan areas presented a different pleasure. In Toledo area, both Lucas and Wood counties showed a population out-movement.

The same was true of Trumbull and Mahoning counties in the Youngstown area.

In the Columbus area, however Franklin, Delaware and Pickaway counties—defined by the Census Bureau as metropolitan Columbus—all showed a net in-movement of people.

Men Under Draft Age Ordered For Reserve Priority

WASHINGTON (AP) — Draft-age men soon will have a tougher time getting into Reserve and National Guard units.

The Defense Department, acting on instructions from President Johnson, ordered Wednesday that beginning May 1, Reserve units must give enlistment priority to men below draft age.

Volunteers other than those in the younger group — ages 17 to 18½ — are to be accepted only as needed to fill specific unit vacancies.

Defense officials emphasied, however, that all reservists in good standing are deferred from the draft and the new policy won't affect that.

Defense officials don't know how many future Reserve enlistments will come from the younger group. But one guessed it would be a majority.

As the Vietnam war has escalated, many Reserve units have developed long waiting lists. Because no Reserve units have been activated during the build-up, the Reserve system has been criticied as a haven for draft-dodgers.

Lisbon Students Arrive Home For Easter Vacation

LISBON — Miss Nancy Ramsey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gregg Ramsey of the Canton Rd., arrived home Wednesday from Stephen's College, Columbia, Mo., for the annual Easter holiday recess.

Ted Muntean, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Monty Muntean of Morris St., and Olaf Rankis, son of Dr. and Mrs. Reinhold Rankis of the Salem - Lisbon Rd., students at Heidelberg College, began their Easter vacation Tuesday.

Miss Mary Jo Ieropoli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Ieropoli of Thomas Rd., has accepted a position with the law firm of Brown, Critchlow, Flick and Peckham of Pittsburgh.

A 1965 graduate of David Anderson High School, Miss Ieropoli completed a 15-month junior accounting course at Duff's Business Institute, Pittsburgh, March 10.

Mrs. Marcella Kress, Mrs. Sharon McNeal, Mrs. Cheri Hersman, Mrs. Marie Rorhbaugh, Mrs. Pat Temple, Mrs. Pat Low, Mrs. Carol Finch and Mrs. Helen Vulcan attended the 1967 ice follies at Pittsburgh Sunday.

Congressional Travelers Spent $718,278 In 1966

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional travelers have reported spending $718,278 last year, running the two-year travel costs of the 89th Congress to $1.4 million.

The final accounting of the overseas expenses of the House and Senate committees appeared Tuesday in the Congressional Record.

A lame duck congressman who toured Europe after his defeat and three others who took trips at the taxpayers' expense after they already had decided to leave Congress were among the travelers.

Details of their journeys:

— Rep. Winfield K. Denton, D-Ind., lost his bid for re-election, then went to Europe as a delegate to an international legislators' conference.

— Rep. John C. Kunkel, R-Pa., toured Asia and Europe for a month at a total expense of $3,500 after Congress had adjourned and long after he had announced his retirement.

— Rep. Walter Rogers, D-Tex., announced his retirement in July. A month before Congress adjourned he took off on a tour of Europe that lasted six weeks and cost $3,970.

— Rep. Robert E. Sweeney, D-Ohio, quit Congress to run for attorney general of Ohio. After Congress adjourned — and after he lost the Ohio race — he visited Morocco, Italy, Spain and France at a cost of $1,800.

Actually, a majority of the members stay home. In the House, which has 435 members, only 154 took trips, but many of them took more than one and some took three or four. Less than half the 100 senators traveled.

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP)—Curvy Pamela Brewer, whose nude pictures in an off-campus magazine upset University of Florida officials, feels she got a raw deal from the school.

Pam, an 18-year-old brunette from Springfield, Va., awoke Wednesday to find her parents had withdrawn her registration overnight. She said her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brewer told her school officials had threatened expulsion unless she withdrew.

School officials denied the accusation.

For now, the 39-24-36 Pam plans to stay here despite offers to work in burlesque.

TORRANCE, Calif. (AP)—Bright and lively Maria Quinones reached her sixth birthday Wednesday. She went back to the hospital where she started as a 20-ounce infant to celebrate it.

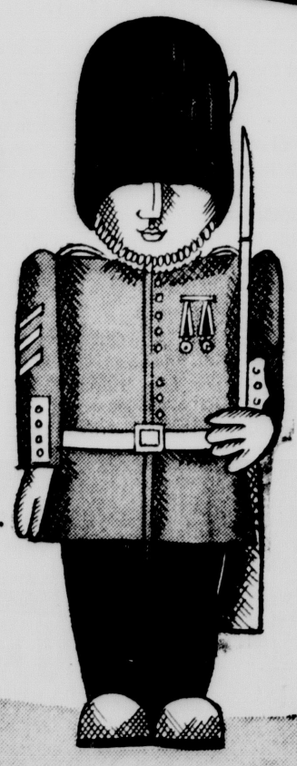

Lucille Meyer, the nurse who cared for the child during her first months, recalled that the first week was the most critical. Doctors said Maria's chances were slim—that babies of less than 2.2 pounds seldom make it.

SAIGON (AP)—An aide asked Gen. William C. Westmoreland to step into the courtyard at his headquarters today.

Suddenly the court was filled by men of the headquarters staff singing "Happy Birthday." Three big cakes were brought out—none with candles—and the commander of U.S. forces in Vietnam cut the first piece with a Navy officer's sword handed to him.

Westmoreland will be 53 on Sunday.

Not Influx From Out-Of-State

Ohio Population Growth Due To Higher Birth Rate

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The growth in Ohio's population over the past 10 years, a study shows, is due to an increased birth rate, and not any influx of people from out-of-state.

And population tends to move to areas of the greatest economic opportunity, the Institute of Social Scientists of Battelle Memorial Institute reported.

The Battelle study, just completed, said the only population moved certain to continue is the one from the central metropolitan areas to the surrounding "bedroom" communities in adjoining counties.

The study showed that 78 of Ohio's 88 counties had population increases during the period 1960-65. Thirty of these counties had more people moving out of the county than into it, but still showed population increases because of births.

Ohio's population was estimated at 10,305,000 as of July 1 last year, an increase of 600,000 over the 1960 census total.

"Viewing the state as a whole, growth in Ohio's population during the past 10 years has resulted entirely from the balance of births over deaths. Since 1955, more people have left the state than entered," the study said.

The Battelle report said migration from county to county is an indicator of the population's adjustment to continuing changes in Ohio's economy and living patterns.

The present migration trends from the hill and strip mining areas of the southeastern and eastern parts of the state is a continuation of a change of emphasis from the use of natural resources to the use of human resources in manufacturing and the service industries.

The study showed that Cuyahoga County had a net outmovement of 66,000 persons, most of them to the surrounding Lake, Geauga or Medina counties. Similar patterns were noted in the Akron, Cincinnati and Dayton metropolitan areas.

Clay Counts Folley Out In 7th Round Of Title Bout

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay has finished off the last of a list of fighters who could be called — with kindness — contenders with his seventh-round knockout of Zora Folley.

Argentina's Oscar Bonavena will be the next sacrificial lamb for the super-fast, invincible champion. The match will be in Tokyo, May 27, unless Clay's legal appeal for a stay from Army induction April 11 is rejected.

Folley, the 34-year-old, No. 1 contender, was knocked out when the supremely confident Clay, or Muhammad Ali as he prefers, decided he wanted to pull the trigger on Wednesday night.

The end came at 1:48 of the seventh round from a chopping right to the jaw. Another right had dropped the bloody-nosed veteran for nine in the fourth round.

These were the highlight rounds of a bout that became one-sided when Clay decided the time had become ripe to open up in the third round. Before that he danced around the ring, virtually conceding the first two rounds to the plodding, methodical challenger.

"There is no one around today who can beat him," said Folley in an interview in the Garden's basement after the fight. "I know, I've fought them all.

"All I remember of the end of the fight was a right — right on the chin. After that I just don't remember."

Clay heatedly denied, in answer to a question, that he had carried Folley.

"I was not carrying him," he said. "He was a better fighter than Sonny Liston, or Floyd Patterson or Ernie Terrell.

When Clay came after him, Folley fought back like a wounded tiger. Although he may still have been dazed, he instinctively fired back with both hands, and a hard right sent Clay to the ropes.

"He hurt me with that punch," said Clay, superbly fit at 211½ pounds over his 6-foot-3 frame. Folley weighed 202½.

But in the seventh Folley scored with a good right to the head that brought a roar from the crowd of 13,780. The roar had barely died down when Clay let loose with his finishing right that dropped Folley for the second and last time.

The 6-foot challenger, blood spewing from his nose, fell flat on his stomach. He rolled over slowly at the count of seven, wobbled to his feet on rubbery legs, and then fell back to his knees. Referee Johnny LoBianco waved his hands. It was all over.

Like him or hate him, Clay has to be rated with the great heavyweight champions. He is the fastest heavyweight ever — "he moves like a lightweight," says former welterweight champion Jackie Fields — probably the best conditioned, and still is maturing and improving.

This was his seventh title defense within a year and his ninth in all. His record is 29-0, including 23 knockouts. Folley, suffered his eighth defeat and sixth knockout loss, as his unbeaten string of 12 was snapped. He has won 74 times.

An all-day snowstorm hurt the gate. The gross receipts, however, of $244,471 broke the Garden fight record of $239,959.

National and international television swelled the receipts. Clay collected about $260,000 on his 50 per cent of the net gate and $150,000 from the ancillary rights. Folley earned his largest purse, about $58,000 on 15 per cent of the net and $25,000 for the ancillaries.

76ers Rip Cincy To Even Playoff Tilts At 1 Each

CINCINNATI (AP) — "Their game strategy was obvious with the first play and that was with Wilt going to the basket. At that point we knew what we were in for," Coach Jack McMahon of the Cincinnati Royals said quietly.

What the Royals were in for was a dazzling one-man show as Wilt Chamberlain poured in 37 points to lead Philadelphia to a 123-102 victory that evened the National Basketball Association's best-of-5 Eastern Division playoffs at 1-1 Wednesday night.

Chamberlain scored the 76ers' first basket to tie the score and the Royals never went ahead. Wilt also pulled down 27 rebounds and was credited with 11 assists as the 76ers avenged their series-opening upset in Wednesday's only playoff game.

"Wilt showed why he should be recognized as the greatest player in the history of the game," Coach Alex Hannum said in the 76ers' dressing room.

"We also tried to key in on (Oscar) Robertson a little more tonight and since Wally Jones is smaller we tried to shift other men on him too."

"We've got two tough ball clubs, but I feel Philadelphia is physically stronger than the Royals," said Hannum. "I would like to play them again tomorrow (Thursday) instead of Friday."

Over in the Royals' dressing room, McMahon said it was not just a matter of strength.

"I was not at all surprised at their going to Wilt," he said. "We knew what to expect. We just didn't play well enough.

"You know, I know and all the rest know that Philadelphia plays zone defense at least partially and the basic adjustment against zone defense is to move the ball. In the final analysis, it was the shooting that killed us."

Hannum said the 76ers took no special measures to keep Dierking down.

"No, we didn't do anything different against Dierking," he said. "I thought Connie was great Tuesday night, but I just didn't think he could play like that again."

While the 76ers and Royals rested, Los Angeles prepared to take on San Francisco and the Chicago Bulls moved to St. Louis to continue their playoffs tonight.

Ohio's Player Of Year, Harris, To Appear Here

Ohio's High School Class AA player of the year, Jim (Bubbles) Harris of Lorain Admiral King, heads the first of four entries which has been received for the Nonpareil Club's four-team invitational basketball tournament to be held Saturday April 1 at Memorial Auditorium.

Harris, a 5-10 scoring phenomenon, will lead a group of Northeastern Ohio stars who will be playing under the banner of Jill's Jiants, a local sponsor, Don Smith, Nonpareil president and tournament director, announced today.

ONLY 5-10, Harris scored 727 points this season for an average of 31.6 per game. He finished with a career total of 1,300 points although scoring only 70 as a sophomore substitute.

Described as a player with the quickness of the great Oscar Robertson, Harris has a deadly jump shot and scored most of his points from 25 feet out or more. His high scoring marks this season were 51 points against Marion Harding and 50 against Lorain St. Mary. He led Lorain to a 21-1 record this season.

JOINING Harris on the squad is teammate Pat Biber, a 6-6 pivot man who scored 513 points for Admiral King for an average of 22.3 per game and pulled down 351 rebounds.

Another member is Vic Solowiow of Cleveland West, who was voted the outstanding player in Cleveland high school basketall this past season. Solowiow is 6-3 and averaged 21 points per game.

All members of the team were picked on the Northeastern Ohio district squad.

SMITH said three other teams will make up the field with one composed of talent from the Ohio Valley area, another from Northwestern Ohio and Indiana and the third team from Western Pennsylvania.

Tickets for the event are on sale at Heimies, Reark's, Sportsmen's Barbershop, Fullerton's Barbershop and the First National Bank.

All proceeds from the tournament will go towards the construction of outdoor basketball courts in the city, Smith said.

Robinson Socks First 2 Homers Of Spring Games

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frankly speaking they were grand sights for Baltimore fans — those two balls soaring over the fence at Sarasota, Fla. They were the first home runs of the exhibition season for Frank Robinson, and they came on consecutive times at bat Wednesday in the Orioles' 5-4, 10-inning victory over Chicago.

Robinson, who has been queitly rounding into shape since undergoing knee surgery during the off season, only played four innings, but it was long enough to give opposing American League pitchers an early start toward a good case of the jitters.

Chicago tied the game at 4-4 on rookie Bill Voss' two-run single in the eighth, and then Baltimore won it on two wild pitches by Danny Lazar and Dave Johnson's single.

Two players St. Louis is counting heavily on had a big day in the Cardinal' 7-2 victory over the New York Mets at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Roger Maris got three singles and a double and scored four times, and Orlando Cepeda collected a single, double and two-run homer. Maris had collected only four hits in 10 previous exhibition games. Ron Swoboda hit a two-run homer for the Mets.

In other games, Cincinnati outslugged Philadelphia 10-6, Houston edged Atlanta 4-3, Pittsburgh nipped Kansas City 2-1, Boston downed the New York Yankees 5-2, Washington topped Detroit 6-4, Los Angeles trounced Minnesota 15-2, California defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and Cleveland walloped San Francisco 14-5.

Vada Pinson and Lee May paced Cincinnati's 16-hit attack at Tampa, Fla., with home runs. Philadelphia managed only three hits — doubles by Tony Gonzalez and Grant Jackson and Johnny Callison's homer.

Meanwhile, at the Phillies' camp at Clearwater, Fla., owner Bob Carpenter announced that Manager Gene Mauch's contract has been extended through 1968.

Norm Miller's two-out, two-strike homer in the last of the ninth lifted Houston past Atlanta at Cocoa, Fla. John Hoffman hit a two-run homer for Atlanta.

Bill Mazeroski singled home both Pittsburgh runs, the second one in the top of the ninth, in the Pirates' victory over Kansas City. The A's scored off Dennis Ribant, who pitched the first five innings. Jim Shellenback worked the last four for the Pirates.

Frank Howard keyed Washington's triumph over Detroit at Pompano Beach, Fla., by driving home three runs with a double and homer. Bill Freehan hit a two-run homer for Detroit.

Los Angeles cut loose for 19 hits in its rout of Minnesota at Vero Beach, Fla. Ron Fairly led the way with a single and triple for three RBI. Wes Parker, Jim Hickman and Jeff Torborg each batted in two runs.

At Palm Springs, Calif., Paul Schall and Jim Fregosi hit bases-empty homers in the first inning off the Cubs Ferguson Jenkins. Jay Johnstone singled home what proved to be the Angels' winning run in the sixth inning.

Cleveland used 15 hits and seven San Francisco errors to blast the Giants at Phoenix, Ariz. Rocky Colavito drove in three runs, including two with a homer, for the Indians.

Dayton Underdog With N. Carolina

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — The Dayton Flyers are coming to Louisville today intent on winning the NCAA basketball title, but they're trying to take the whole thing in stride.

"It's always been our policy to worry about the game coming up before worrying about the next one," said Dayton's successful coach, Don Donoher, who is in the NCAA playoffs for the third straight year.

"We'll play everybody in the tournament the same way we went through the season," he added. "There's not time to change anything anyway."

Dayton and the three other teams competing for the NCAA title, UCLA, North Carolina and Houston, arrive today and will hold hour-long workouts in Freedom Hall, site of this year's tournament.

Dayton is the most surprising entry in the championship field, having advanced over sixth-ranked Western Kentucky and Southeastern Conference champion Tennessee, but Donoher says the Flyers planned it that way.

"We were hoping to go to the NCAA playoffs again," Donoher said. "We're an independent and since there's no league title to shoot for, we just aimed for the NCAA."

Dayton brings a 24-5 record into the championship meet and Donoher boasts the best winning percentage of any coach in the tourney. He's won 69 and lost 18 for a .793 percentage.

All three of Dayton's NCAA regional games were close. They beat Western Kentucky 69-67 in overtime, whipped Tennessee 53-52 and toppled Virginia Tech 71-66 in overtime.

Dayton will be the underdog again in the opening game of the tournament Friday night against North Carolina. Houston and UCLA meet in the second game Friday.

The championship game is Saturday night and many of the coaches attending the NCAA Coaches Association meeting at Louisville say the winner of the Houston-UCLA match will emerge as the national champion.

Indiana Swim Team Challenges S. Cal. And Yale

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP) A team from Indiana sets out today to break swimming domination of the National Collegiate Athletic Association by Southern California and Yale.

A fight among Indiana, defending champion Southern California and Yale shaped up in the first day's competition in the NCAA swimming championships at Michigan State University. The meet ends Saturday night.

Yale is loaded with tank talent this year, including Don Schollander, winner of four gold medals in the 1964 Olympics at Tokyo.

But Indiana has been the Big Ten champion seven straight times and the NCAA runner-up the last three years.

The Hoosiers have strength in diving and in high point relays events.

Pitt Names Zajdel As Backfield Coach

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The University of Pittsburgh has a new backfield coach for its football team.

Pitt announced Wednesday the hiring of Stanley A. Zajdel, 39, backfield coach for two years at the Merchant Marine Academy in Kings Point, N.Y.

Rudy LaRusso Sues NBA For $465,000

LOS ANGELES (AP — Rudy LaRusso, who was suspended from the National Basketball Association after refusing to participate in a triangle swap last January, is suing the association for $465,000.

LaRusso filed suit Wednesday in federal court charging the NBA with conspiracy and monopoly.

The strapping 30-year-old former Los Angeles Laker forward says that because of the trade and subsequent suspensions he "is, in effect, blacklisted by all of the other teams and is a victim of group boycott."

Clay Counts Folley Out In 7th Round Of Title Bout

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Heavyweight champion Cassius Clay has finished off the last of a list of fighters who could be called — with kindness — contenders with his seventh-round knockout of Zora Folley.

Argentina's Oscar Bonavena will be the next sacrificial lamb for the super-fast, invincible champion. The match will be in Tokyo, May 27, unless Clay's legal appeal for a stay from Army induction April 11 is rejected.

Folley, the 34-year-old, No. 1 contender, was knocked out when the supremely confident Clay, or Muhammad Ali as he prefers, decided he wanted to pull the trigger on Wednesday night.

The end came at 1:48 of the seventh round from a chopping right to the jaw. Another right had dropped the bloody-nosed veteran for nine in the fourth round.

These were the highlight rounds of a bout that became one-sided when Clay decided the time had become ripe to open up in the third round. Before that he danced around the ring, virtually conceding the first two rounds to the plodding, methodical challenger.

Folley was a prohibitive 7-1 long shot for his first shot at the title. What odds against Oscar? 100 to 1?

"There is no one around today who can beat him," said Folley in an interview in the Garden's basement after the fight. "I know, I've fought them all.

"All I remember of the end of the fight was a right — right on the chin. After that I just don't remember."

Clay heatedly denied, in answer to a question, that he had carried Folley.

"I was not carrying him," he said. "He was a better fighter than Sonny Liston, or Floyd Patterson or Ernie Terrell.

He was slick, tricky and a good boxer."

When Clay came after him, Folley fought back like a wounded tiger. Although he may still have been dazed, he instinctively fired back with both hands, and a hard right sent Clay to the ropes.

"He hurt me with that punch," said Clay, superbly fit at 211½ pounds over his 6-foot-3 frame. Folley weighed 202½.

Clay started chopping away in the next two rounds with streams of left jabs to the bleeding nose and the lump under Folley's left eye. He didn't let go with the big punch.

But in the seventh Folley scored with a good right to the head that brought a roar from the crowd of 13,780. The roar had barely died down when Clay let loose with his finishing right that dropped Folley for the second and last time.

The 6-foot challenger, blood spewing from his nose, fell flat on his stomach. He rolled over slowly at the count of seven, wobbled to his feet on rubbery legs, and then fell back to his knees. Referee Johnny LoBianco waved his hands. It was all over.

Like him or hate him, Clay has to be rated with the great heavyweight champions. He is the fastest heavyweight ever — "he moves like a lightweight," says former welterweight champion Jackie Fields — probably the best conditioned, and still is maturing and improving.

This was his seventh title defense within a year and his ninth in all. His record is 29-0, including 23 knockouts. Folley, suffered his eighth defeat and sixth knockout loss, as his unbeaten string of 12 was snapped. He has won 74 times.

An all-day snowstorm hurt the gate. The gross receipts, however, of $244,471 broke the Garden fight record of $239,959.

National and international television swelled the receipts. Clay collected about $260,000 on his 50 per cent of the net gate and $150,000 from the ancillary rights. Folley earned his largest purse, about $58,000 on 15 per cent of the net and $25,000 for the ancillaries.

76ers Rip Cincy To Even Playoff Tilts At 1 Each

CINCINNATI (AP) — "Their game strategy was obvious with the first play and that was with Wilt going to the basket. At that point we knew what we were in for," Coach Jack McMahon of the Cincinnati Royals said quietly.

What the Royals were in for was a dazzling one-man show as Wilt Chamberlain poured in 37 points to lead Philadelphia to a 123-102 victory that evened the National Basketball Association's best-of-5 Eastern Division playoffs at 1-1 Wednesday night.

Chamberlain scored the 76ers' first basket to tie the score and the Royals never went ahead. Wilt also pulled down 27 rebounds and was credited with 11 assists as the 76ers avenged their series-opening upset in Wednesday's only playoff game.

"Wilt showed why he should be recognized as the greatest player in the history of the game," Coach Alex Hannum said in the 76ers' dressing room.

"We also tried to key in on (Oscar) Robertson a little more tonight and since Wally Jones is smaller we tried to shift other men on him too."

"We've got two tough ball clubs, but I feel Philadelphia is physically stronger than the Royals," said Hannum. "I would like to play them again tomorrow (Thursday) instead of Friday."

Over in the Royals' dressing room, McMahon said it was not just a matter of strength.

"I was not at all surprised at their going to Wilt," he said. "We knew what to expect. We just didn't play well enough.

"You know, I know and all the rest know that Philadelphia plays zone defense at least partially and the basic adjustment against zone defense is to move the ball. In the final analysis, it was the shooting that killed us."

Robertson scored 29 points to lead the Royals and Connie Dierking — the star of Tuesday night's game — added 21, plus 17 rebounds. Hal Greer scored 28 for Philadelphia.

Hannum said the 76ers took no special measures to keep Dierking down.

"No, we didn't do anything different against Dierking," he said. "I thought Connie was great Tuesday night, but I just didn't think he could play like that again."

While the 76ers and Royals rested, Los Angeles prepared to take on San Francisco and the Chicago Bulls moved to St. Louis to continue their playoffs tonight.

Ohio's Player Of Year, Harris, To Appear Here

Ohio's High School Class AA player of the year, Jim (Bubbles) Harris of Lorain Admiral King, heads the first of four entries which has been received for the Nonpareil Club's four-team invitational basketball tournament to be held Saturday April 1 at Memorial Auditorium.

Harris, a 5-10 scoring phenomenon, will lead a group of Northeastern Ohio stars who will be playing under the banner of Jill's Jiants, a local sponsor, Don Smith, Nonpareil president and tournament director, announced today.

ONLY 5-10, Harris scored 727 points this season for an average of 31.6 per game. He finished with a career total of 1,300 points although scoring only 70 as a sophomore substitute.

Described as a player with the quickness of the great Oscar Robertson, Harris has a deadly jump shot and scored most of his points from 25 feet out or more. His high scoring marks this season were 51 points against Marion Harding and 50 against Lorain St. Mary. He led Lorain to a 21-1 record this season.

JOINING Harris on the squad is teammate Pat Biber, a 6-6 pivot man who scored 513 points for Admiral King for an average of 22.3 per game and pulled down 351 rebounds.

Another member is Vic Soloviow of Cleveland West, who was voted the outstanding player in Cleveland high school basketall this past season. Soloviow is 6-3 and averaged 21 points per game.

All members of the team were picked on the Northeastern Ohio district squad.

SMITH said three other teams will make up the field with one composed of talent from the Ohio Valley area, another from Northwestern Ohio and Indiana and the third team from Western Pennsylvania.

Tickets for the event are on sale at Heimies, Reark's, Sportsmen's Barbershop, Fullerton's Barbershop and the First National Bank.

All proceeds from the tournament will go towards the construction of outdoor basketball courts in the city, Smith said.

Robinson Socks First 2 Homers Of Spring Games

By ED SCHUYLER Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Frankly speaking they were grand sights for Baltimore fans — those two balls soaring over the fence at Sarasota, Fla. They were the first home runs of the exhibition season for Frank Robinson, and they came on consecutive times at bat Wednesday in the Orioles' 5-4, 10-inning victory over Chicago.

Robinson, who has been queitly rounding into shape since undergoing knee surgery during the off season, only played four innings, but it was long enough to give opposing American League pitchers an early start toward a good case of the jitters.

Chicago tied the game at 4-4 on rookie Bill Voss' two-run single in the eighth, and then Baltimore won it on two wild pitches by Danny Lazar and Dave Johnson's single.

Two players St. Louis is counting heavily on had a big day in the Cardinal' 7-2 victory over the New York Mets at St. Petersburg, Fla.

Roger Maris got three singles and a double and scored four times, and Orlando Cepeda collected a single, double and two-run homer. Maris had collected only four hits in 10 previous exhibition games. Ron Swoboda hit a two-run homer for the Mets.

In other games, Cincinnati outslugged Philadelphia 10-6, Houston edged Atlanta 4-3, Pittsburgh nipped Kansas City 2-1, Boston downed the New York Yankees 5-2, Washington topped Detroit 6-4, Los Angeles trounced Minnesota 15-2, California defeated the Chicago Cubs 5-2 and Cleveland walloped San Francisco 14-5.

Vada Pinson and Lee May paced Cincinnati's 16-hit attack at Tampa, Fla., with home runs. Philadelphia managed only three hits — doubles by Tony Gonzalez and Grant Jackson and Johnny Callison's homer.

Meanwhile, at the Phillies' camp at Clearwater, Fla., owner Bob Carpenter announced that Manager Gene Mauch's contract has been extended through 1968.

Norm Miller's two-out, two-strike homer in the last of the ninth lifted Houston past Atlanta at Cocoa, Fla. John Hoffman hit a two-run homer for Atlanta.

Bill Mazeroski singled home both Pittsburgh runs, the second one in the top of the ninth, in the Pirates' victory over Kansas City. The A's scored off Dennis Ribant, who pitched the first five innings. Jim Shellenback worked the last four for the Pirates.

Jim Bouton was touched for two-run homers by Carl Yastrzemski and Rico Petrocelli in the third inning in Boston's defeat of the Yankees at Winter Haven, Fla. Mickey Mantle left the game in the third inning with a slight pull of the left hamstring muscle.

Frank Howard keyed Washington's triumph over Detroit at Pompano Beach, Fla., by driving home three runs with a double and homer. Bill Freehan hit a two-run homer for Detroit.

Los Angeles cut loose for 19 hits in its rout of Minnesota at Vero Beach, Fla. Ron Fairly led the way with a single and triple for three RBI. Wes Parker, Jim Hickman and Jeff Torborg each batted in two runs.

At Palm Springs, Calif., Paul Schall and Jim Fregosi hit bases-empty homers in the first inning off the Cubs Ferguson Jenkins. Jay Johnstone singled home what proved to be the Angels' winning run in the sixth inning.

Cleveland used 15 hits and seven San Francisco errors to blast the Giants at Phoenix, Ariz. Rocky Colavito drove in three runs, including two with a homer, for the Indians.

YOUR CAR

By Al Green

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW EXACTLY when your brake light flashes on? If you know you can tap the brake to warn drivers behind you that you are slowing down. A small red bulb on the dash can be wired into the brake light switch, and you'll know when the light flashes.

WANT A SAFER CAR KEY? GET a dash knob like the others in your car and cut a slot in it. Then saw off your ignition key and glue it in the slot. Now you can leave your key in the switch and thieves won't know it's there. Perfectly safe, saves digging for keys!

FRICTION AT HOME ABOUT WHO GETS the car? Solve it by buying your wife a good used car. We have a lot full of fine, well reconditioned used cars here at M & A MOtors DODGE in East Liverpool and Wellsville. Our cars are hand picked, reconditioned, ready to roll. Come and see them! You'll fall in love with one I'm sure, so stop in this week for sure!

DRIVING ONTO A FREEWAY OR PARKWAY? Don't be timid! That half-mile approach lane is for one reason — for you to get your car up to freeway speed of at least 55 mph. At that speed you can merge with freeway traffic smoothly. Whatever you do, don't stop at the end of that acceleration lane to a freeway. That is very dangerous!

AMBULANCES BEWARE! IN MANY cities ambulances do not have the right-of-way, and are not considered emergency vehicles. They must obey speed laws, traffic lights and rights of other drivers on road.

Brewer Eyes Another Title At Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Defending champion Gay Brewer leads a field of 144 pros into the $75,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament today on the 6,419-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course.

Top money in the 72-hole tournament is $15,000.

Sanders is returning to the scene of the tournament in which he blew his chances last year of becoming the first repeat Pensacola winner.

The Cedartown, Ga., native was disqualified after 36-holes last year for failure to sign his score card. At the time, Sanders had shaved 14 strokes off par for a 130 and a four-stroke lead over Brewer.

Missing from the field are Arnold Palmer, Tom Nieporte and Billy Casper, last year's leading money winner.

Brewer outlasted a late surge by Bruce Devlin last year to win by three stokes. It was Brewer's lone victory of the year and sparked him to a $75,687 year, his best since turning professional.

Frank Beard was low pro today at 64 in a pro-amateur event, collecting $350 for his six-under-par performance.

All-State Honors Go To Midland's Vanlier

Midland's Norm Vanlier was the only sophomore to be named to the Associated Press All - Pennsylvania first team which was announced today.

The team was picked by sportswriters, broadcasters and telecasters throughout Pennsylvania.

Vanlier, a 6-1 sophomore, led St. Francis to a 20-6 season and averaged over 16 points per game while leading the team in assists.

Ambridge Stars Named All-State

Dick DeVenzio and Dennis Wuycik, the mainstays of Ambridge High's state championship team, were named to the five-men all-state basketball team named Wednesday by the Associated Press.

DeVenzio, a deadly outside shot averaged 21 points per game for the Bridgers enroute to the state title and Wuycik scored at a 25.9 clip.

Durrett, an all-stater last year, averaged 26 points in 23 games for Schenley this season.

Rhoades, although a member of the Class B champion Mercer team, was the first player from a non-Class A school to be honored since 1964.

Following are the first five teams as announced by the Associated Press:

FIRST TEAM

Denis Wuycik, 6-5 junior, Ambridge.

Bob Rhoads, 6-4 senior, Mercer.

Ken Durrett, 6-6 senior, Pittsburgh Schenley.

Paul Williams, 6-2½ senior, Chester.

Dick DeVenzio, 5-1 senior, Ambridge.

SECOND TEAM

Jerry Janeski, Williamsport; Dick Peterson, Emporium; Wilbert Robinson, Laurel Highlands; Ken Shamzerger, Chester; Tom Yachinich, Bradford.

THIRD TEAM

FOURTH TEAM

By Al Green

WOULD YOU LIKE TO KNOW EXACTLY when your brake light flashes on? If you know you can tap the brake to warn drivers behind you that you are slowing down. A small red bulb on the dash can be wired into the brake light switch, and you'll know when the light flashes.

WANT A SAFER CAR KEY? GET a dash knob like the others in your car and cut a slot in it. Then saw off your ignition key and glue it in the slot. Now you can leave your key in the switch and thieves won't know it's there. Perfectly safe, saves digging for keys!

FRICTION AT HOME ABOUT WHO GETS the car? Solve it by buying your wife a good used car. We have a lot full of fine, well reconditioned used cars here at M & A Motors DODGE in East Liverpool and Wellsville. Our cars are hand picked, reconditioned, ready to roll. Come and see them! You'll fall in love with one I'm sure, so stop in this week for sure!

DRIVING ONTO A FREEWAY OR PARKWAY? Don't be timid! That half-mile approach lane is for one reason — for you to get your car up to freeway speed of at least 55 mph. At that speed you can merge with freeway traffic smoothly. Whatever you do, don't stop at the end of that acceleration lane to a freeway. That is very dangerous!

AMBULANCES BEWARE! IN MANY cities ambulances do not have the right-of-way, and are not considered emergency vehicles. They must obey speed laws, traffic lights and rights of other drivers on road.

WHAT'S GOING ON WITH THE DODGE BOYS? We've nicknamed them "READY-TO-DEAL" Boys because as the name applies — they're ready. Ready with the cars . . . ready with the White Hat Specials . . . ready to make the deal for you. Want to know more? See the Dodge Boys tonight at M & A Dodge, Broadway, East Liverpool, Wells Ave., Wellsville.

Brewer Eyes Another Title At Pensacola

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — Defending champion Gay Brewer leads a field of 144 pros into the $75,000 Pensacola Open Golf Tournament today on the 6,419-yard, par-72 Pensacola Country Club course.

Top money in the 72-hole tournament is $15,000.

Sanders is returning to the scene of the tournament in which he blew his chances last year of becoming the first repeat Pensacola winner.

The Cedartown, Ga., native was disqualified after 36-holes last year for failure to sign his score card. At the time, Sanders had shaved 14 strokes off par for a 130 and a four-stroke lead over Brewer.

Missing from the field are Arnold Palmer, Tom Nieporte and Billy Casper, last year's leading money winner.

Brewer outlasted a late surge by Bruce Devlin last year to win by three stokes. It was Brewer's lone victory of the year and sparked him to a $75,687 year, his best since turning professional.

Frank Beard was low pro today at 64 in a pro-amateur event, collecting $350 for his six-under-par performance.

All-State Honors Go To Midland's Vanlier

Midland's Norm Vanlier was the only sophomore to be named to the Associated Press All - Pennsylvania first team which was announced today.

The team was picked by sportswriters, broadcasters and telecasters throughout Pennsylvania.

Vanlier, a 6-1 sophomore, led St. Francis to a 20-6 season and averaged over 16 points per game while leading the team in assists.

Fight Results

AUCKLAND, New Zealand — Eddie Cotton, 177¾, Seattle, Wash., stopped Bobby Stininato, 171¾, San Francisco, 9.

Ambridge Stars Named All-State

Dick DeVenzio and Dennis Wuycik, the mainstays of Ambridge High's state championship team, were named to the five - men all - state basketball team named Wednesday by the Associated Press.

DeVenzio, a deadly outside shot averaged 21 points per game for the Bridgers enroute to the state title and Wuycik scored at a 25.9 clip.

Durrett, an all - stater last year, averaged 26 points in 23 games for Schenley this season.

Rhoades, although a member of the Class B champion Mercer team, was the first player from a non - Class A school to be honored since 1964.

Following are the first five teams as announced by the Associated Press:

FIRST TEAM

Denis Wuycik, 6-5 junior, Ambridge.

Bob Rhoads, 6-4 senior, Mercer.

Ken Durrett, 6-6 senior, Pittsburgh Schenley.

Paul Williams, 6-2½ senior, Chester.

Dick DeVenzio, 5-1 senior, Ambridge.

SECOND TEAM

Jerry Janeski, Williamsport; Dick Peterson, Emporium; Wilbert Robinson, Laurel Highlands; Ken Shamzerger, Chester; Tom Yachinich, Bradford.

FOURTH TEAM

Tom Antolik, Shickshinny Northwest; Chris Buchanan, Meadville; Jim Haney, Mount Lebanon; Mark Killian, Berwick; Steve Litz, Pittsburgh South Hills Catholic.

FIFTH TEAM

Honorable Mention Given Mahurt, Lake

Midland's Rich Mahurt and Jeff Lake were honored on the all-state team by being named to the honorable mention list of players in District 7. Mahurt and Lake, both seniors, helped the Leopards to a 22-2 record this past season.

By HAL HUMPHREY

Tarzan, Big Man On Madison Ave.

Tarzan will be back again on TV next season chiefly because NBC found he had the largest audience of women between 18 and 34 of any prime - time show and also is second only to Lawrence Welk in cost-per - thousand viewers.

Hal Humphrey

Cost-per-thousand viewers is an extremely vital figure in the TV world. It is arrived at by dividing the cost of the show (to a sponsor) each week by the number of viewers, then dividing again by 1,000.

-:-

IF THE SPONSOR is reaching every 1,000 viewers at, say, a cost of $1.75 with Tarzan or Welk, then he considers them a bargain compared to Jackie Gleason or Gomer Pyle who may be costing $2.25 or more per 1,000 viewers.

Now if the sponsor is selling shampoo, as one of the Tarzan sponsors happens to be, then you can imagine his ecstasy when told that the ape man has more 18-to-34-year-old women watching him than anybody on TV.

I only wish Tarzan were as invincible in his jungle habitat as he seems to be on Madison Avenue. Where is the Tarzan I remember from my misspent youth? The one who could Indian-wrestle a gorilla twice his size to the ground in three seconds flat or hold a pride of lions at bay with a spear.

STEVE SHAGAN, the third producer of the Tarzan series since it came to TV last fall, is trying to convince me that the Tarzan of old was nothing but that one-line joke — "Me Tarzan, you Jane' — and that kids would laugh that kind of character off the air today.

"The Tarzan you remember from those old Weissmuller pictures was pure escapism," Shagan tells me, with an admonishing tone which I assume was intended to shame me out of my nostalgia. "We had to bring some credibility to this incredible character so he would be at least painless for adults to watch and convincing to the kids."

Personally, I think Shagan is out in left field here on several counts. If kids aren't looking for "pure escapism" today, just as they were in my day, why are they dressing the way they do and singing folk lyrics which make the late Gertrude Stein a paragon of logic?

FAR FROM being a square, as Shagan believes, the old tongue-tied Tarzan would be a genuine "hippie" today, if Shagan and executive producer Sy Weintraub would only give him back his Jane and his physical invincibility.

This new TV Tarzan always is trying to reason with modern man on the latter's level, then discovering to his (Tarzan's) disappointment that modern man is confused, weak and generally dishonest.

How many times must Tarzan encounter these human frailties before he takes a Jane, goes back into the jungle to stay and realizes his ape upbringing has given him a leg up on the whole human race?

Making Tarzan credible to kids and painless to adults, as Shagan puts it, has succeeded only in destroying one of our great myths. Most kids don't even believe their parents are for real. Why should they have to think Tarzan is?

AS FOR THE ADULTS, what harassed male today wouldn't trade places with the Tarzan I used to know? The one who could lick a lion and make love in a tree. And what female doesn't want to believe that a tall hunk of man like Tarzan won't pop out of the shrubbery some afternoon and carry her off into the jungle where there are no dishes to wash and no private secretaries for competition?

TV's Tarzan may be a big man on Madison Avenue, but in my house he's a bum and a traitor to his kind. And if everything has to be measured by cost-per-thousand, then I'll take Lawrence Welk. He's incredible, obviously invincible and has a Champagne Lady.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Dead Sea Scrolls, a collection of hundreds of Hebrew and Aramaic manuscript fragments, were found between 1947 and 1952 in a number of caves about 15 miles west of Jerusalem. Some of the texts are estimated to be about 1,000 years older than any previously found. The finds are still the subject of intensive study by historians and religious scholars. One of the scrolls contained the complete text of Isaiah dating from the Second Century B.C.

4-H News

"Safety" was the theme during the meeting of the Elwood 4-H Club Monday at the home of Mrs. Emma Renfro of Newell, leader.

Debbie Stafford, vice president, called the meeting to order.

Devotional readings were given by Jim Anderson and Patty Wiersbicki and a prayer by Ronnie Heffner. Cindy Copestick read a poem, "A Diamond In The Rough," and Debbie Stafford siscussed the "Thought for the Day."

Posters were turned in on "Dental Health."

Debbie Stafford and Becky Wilson reported they will attend the County Demonstration Day meeting April 7.

Readings during the program included "First Aid Supplies," Susan Brown; "Rescue Breathing," Becky Wilson, and "What Is Infection," Patty Wiersbicki.

The next meeting will be April 3.

A talent contest, demonstrations and talks highlighted the meeting of the Pioneer Senior 4-H Club Monday at the Pughtown Christian Church.

A piano and guitar duet to "Cotton Candy" were presented by Bill and Shirley Halley and a medley of school songs by John Mayhew and Fred Miller.

Demonstrations included "How to remove insulation from a wire" by Jeff Weyrich and "How to replace a wire in a plug" by Ed Gracie.

The talks were "How to make your appearance count," by Terri Arehart and Marilyn Freeman; "Do's and don't in your complete costume," by Beckie Priest; "Pinning insects," by Chuck Gracie, and "How to make an insect - killing jar," by Skip Mayhew.

The treasurer reported a balance of $38.34.

The following events at New Cumberland Junior High School were announced:

"Fun Night," March 31 at 7:30; County Demonstration Day observance, April 7 at 7:30 p.m., and a slide program by Miss Dorothea Dillon, I.F.Y.E. representative, April 24 at 7:30 p. m., on her trip to Colombia.

Also announced were a 4-H skating party at the Melody Lane rink April 14; a county 4-H nature walk and breakfast May 6, and county 4-H camps July 3-17.

Marilyn Freeman and Debbie Zaney will be hostesses for the next meeting April 17. Karen Virden will be in charge of devotions.

LEGAL NOTICE

STATE OF OHIO, COUNTY OF COLUMBIANA, SS:
IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS

CENTRAL FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF WELLSVILLE, OHIO, A CORPORATION, Plaintiff, vs. ROGER H. BACKUS, DORA M. BACKUS, PEOPLES NATIONAL FUND, INC., VINCENT C. JUDGE, COLUMBIANA COUNTY TREASURER, Defendants.

THE PEOPLES NATIONAL FUND, INC., whose last known address is 633 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017, will take notice that on the 8th day of February, 1967, the Plaintiff, Central Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wellsville, Ohio, filed its Petition against Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus, and The Peoples National Fund, Inc. in the Court of Common Pleas, Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case Number 51794 in said Court, for the purpose of obtaining judgment against Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus in the amount of Four Thousand Four Hundred Eighty-six and 11/100 Dollars ($4,486.11) and foreclosing of the mortgage on certain real estate as described in said Petition.

The Peoples National Fund, Inc. claim a Lien against said property as found in Mortgage Deed Volume 1204, at Page 439 in the Recorder's Office of Columbiana County, Ohio. Said Real Estate is described as follows:

Situated in the Township of St. Clair, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and known as and being that certain tract located in the Southwest Quarter of Section 10, Township No. 6, Range 1, and being more fully described as follows: Beginning in the Southeast corner of the South-west Quarter of Section 19, and running thence West with the South line of Section 19, a distance of 529.70 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 679.04 to the place of beginning of the tract herein described; thence South 89 degrees 50 minutes West 329.76 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 234.26 feet to a point on the Northerly line of lands of Harmon D. Chaney; thence with the line of lands of Chaney South 59 degrees 0 minutes East 238.50 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 67.86 feet to a point; thence North 89 degrees 50 minutes East 134.23 feet to a point; thence South 0 degrees 10 minutes East 183.86 feet to the place of beginning and containing in area 1.361 Acres, more or less, but subject to all legal highways.

The prayer of the said Petition is for Judgment to be rendered in the favor of the Plaintiff against the Defendants, Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus, in the sum of Four Thousand Four Hundred Eighty - six and 11/100 Dollars ($4,486.11), together with interest at the rate of six and one half per cent (6½%); that the Mortgage herein described be foreclosed upon the equities of redemption and that the premises heretofore described be sold and the proceeds therefrom applied upon money judgment of the Plaintiff and for any other equitable relief.

Said Defendant, Peoples National Fund, Inc. is required to answer said Petition by the 27th day of April, 1967.

Out Of The Air

By HAL HUMPHREY

Tarzan, Big Man On Madison Ave.

Tarzan will be back again on TV next season chiefly because NBC found he had the largest audience of women between 18 and 34 of any prime - time show and also is second only to Lawrence Welk in cost-per - thousand viewers.

Hal Humphrey

Cost-per-thousand viewers is an extremely vital figure in the TV world. It is arrived at by dividing the cost of the show (to a sponsor) each week by the number of viewers, then dividing again by 1,000.

-:-

IF THE SPONSOR is reaching every 1,000 viewers at, say, a cost of $1.75 with Tarzan or Welk, then he considers them a bargain compared to Jackie Gleason or Gomer Pyle who may be costing $2.25 or more per 1,000 viewers.

Now if the sponsor is selling shampoo, as one of the Tarzan sponsors happens to be, then you can imagine his ecstasy when told that the ape man has more 18-to-34-year-old women watching him than anybody on TV.

I only wish Tarzan were as invincible in his jungle habitat as he seems to be on Madison Avenue. Where is the Tarzan I remember from my misspent youth? The one who could Indian-wrestle a gorilla twice his size to the ground in three seconds flat or hold a pride of lions at bay with a spear.

STEVE SHAGAN, the third producer of the Tarzan series since it came to TV last fall, is trying to convince me that the Tarzan of old was nothing but that one-line joke — "Me Tarzan, you Jane' — and that kids would laugh that kind of character off the air today.

"The Tarzan you remember from those old Weissmuller pictures was pure escapism," Shagan tells me, with an admonishing tone which I assume was intended to shame me out of my nostalgia. "We had to bring some credibility to this incredible character so he would be at least painless for adults to watch and convincing to the kids."

Personally, I think Shagan is out in left field here on several counts. If kids aren't looking for "pure escapism" today, just as they were in my day, why are they dressing the way they do and singing folk lyrics which make the late Gertrude Stein a paragon of logic?

FAR FROM being a square, as Shagan believes the old tongue-tied Tarzan would be a genuine "hippie" today, if Shagan and executive producer Sy Weintraub would only give him back his Jane and his physical invincibility.

This new TV Tarzan always is trying to reason with modern man on the latter's level, then discovering to his (Tarzan's) disappointment that modern man is confused, weak and generally dishonest.

How many times must Tarzan encounter these human frailties before he takes a Jane, goes back into the jungle to stay and realizes his ape upbringing has given him a leg up on the whole human race?

Making Tarzan credible to kids and painless to adults, as Shagan puts it, has succeeded only in destroying one of our great myths. Most kids don't even believe their parents are for real. Why should they have to think Tarzan is?

AS FOR THE ADULTS, what harassed male today wouldn't trade places with the Tarzan I used to know? The one who could lick a lion and make love in a tree. And what female doesn't want to believe that a tall hunk of man like Tarzan won't pop out of the shrubbery some afternoon and carry her off into the jungle where there are no dishes to wash and no private secretaries for competition?

TV's Tarzan may be a big man on Madison Avenue, but in my house he's a bum and a traitor to his kind. And if everything has to be measured by cost-per-thousand, then I'll take Lawrence Welk. He's incredible, obviously invincible and has a Champagne Lady.

WORLD ALMANAC FACTS

The Dead Sea Scrolls, a collection of hundreds of Hebrew and Aramaic manuscript fragments, were found between 1947 and 1952 in a number of caves about 15 miles west of Jerusalem. Some of the texts are estimated to be about 1,000 years older than any previously found. The finds are still the subject of intensive study by historians and religious scholars. One of the scrolls contained the complete text of Isaiah dating from the Second Century B.C.

4-H News

"Safety" was the theme during the meeting of the Elwood 4-H Club Monday at the home of Mrs. Emma Renfro of Newell, leader.

Debbie Stafford, vice president, called the meeting to order.

Devotional readings were given by Jim Anderson and Patty Wiersbicki and a prayer by Ronnie Heffner. Cindy Copestick read a poem, "A Diamond In The Rough," and Debbie Stafford siscussed the "Thought for the Day."

Posters were turned in on "Dental Health."

Debbie Stafford and Becky Wilson reported they will attend the County Demonstration Day meeting April 7.

Readings during the program included "First Aid Supplies," Susan Brown; "Rescue Breathing," Becky Wilson, and "What Is Infection," Patty Wiersbicki.

The next meeting will be April 3.

A piano and guitar duet to "Cotton Candy" were presented by Bill and Shirley Halley and a medley of school songs by John Mayhew and Fred Miller.

Demonstrations included "How to remove insulation from a wire" by Jeff Weyrich and "How to replace a wire in a plug" by Ed Gracie.

The talks were "How to make your appearance count," by Terri Arehart and Marilyn Freeman; "Do's and don't in your complete costume," by Beckie Priest; "Pinning insects," by Chuck Gracie, and "How to make an insect - killing jar," by Skip Mayhew.

The treasurer reported a balance of $38.34.

The following events at New Cumberland Junior High School were announced:

"Fun Night," March 31 at 7:30; County Demonstration Day observance, April 7 at 7:30 p.m., and a slide program by Miss Dorothea Dillon, I.F.Y.E. representative, April 24 at 7:30 p. m., on her trip to Colombia.

Also announced were a 4-H skating party at the Melody Lane rink April 14; a county 4-H nature walk and breakfast May 6, and county 4-H camps July 3-17.

Marilyn Freeman and Debbie Zaney will be hostesses for the next meeting April 17. Karen Virden will be in charge of devotions.

LEGAL NOTICE

STATE OF OHIO, COUNTY OF COLUMBIANA, SS:

CENTRAL FEDERAL SAVINGS AND LOAN ASSOCIATION OF WELLSVILLE, OHIO, A CORPORATION, Plaintiff, vs. ROGER H. BACKUS, DORA M. BACKUS, PEOPLES NATIONAL FUND, INC., VINCENT C. JUDGE, COLUMBIANA COUNTY TREASURER, Defendants.

THE PEOPLES NATIONAL FUND, INC., whose last known address is 633 Third Avenue, New York, New York 10017, will take notice that on the 8th day of February, 1967, the Plaintiff, Central Federal Savings and Loan Association of Wellsville, Ohio, filed its Petition against Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus, and The Peoples National Fund, Inc. in the Court of Common Pleas, Columbiana County, Ohio, the same being Case Number 51794 in said Court, for the purpose of obtaining judgment against Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus in the amount of Four Thousand Four Hundred Eighty-six and 11/100 Dollars ($4,486.11) and foreclosing of the mortgage on certain real estate as described in said Petition.

The Peoples National Fund, Inc. claim a Lien against said property as found in Mortgage Deed Volume 1204, at Page 439 in the Recorder's Office of Columbiana County, Ohio. Said Real Estate is described as follows:

Situated in the Township of St. Clair, County of Columbiana and State of Ohio, and known as and being that certain tract located in the Southwest Quarter of Section 10, Township No. 6, Range 1, and being more fully described as follows: Beginning in the Southeast corner of the South-west Quarter of Section 19, and running thence West with the South line of Section 19, a distance of 529.70 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 679.04 to the place of beginning of the tract herein described; thence South 89 degrees 50 minutes West 329.76 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 234.26 feet to a point on the Northerly line of lands of Harmon D. Chaney; thence with the line of lands of Chaney South 59 degrees 0 minutes East 238.50 feet to a point; thence North 0 degrees 10 minutes West 67.86 feet to a point; thence North 89 degrees 50 minutes East 134.23 feet to a point; thence South 0 degrees 10 minutes East 183.86 feet to the place of beginning and containing in area 1.361 Acres, more or less, but subject to all legal highways.

The prayer of the said Petition is for Judgment to be rendered in the favor of the Plaintiff against the Defendants, Roger H. Backus and Dora M. Backus, in the sum of Four Thousand Four Hundred Eighty - six and 11/100 Dollars ($4,486.11), together with interest at the rate of six and one half per cent (6½%); that the Mortgage herein described be foreclosed upon the equities of redemption and that the premises heretofore described be sold and the proceeds therefrom applied upon money judgment of the Plaintiff and for any other equitable relief.

Said Defendant, Peoples National Fund, Inc. is required to answer said Petition by the 27th day of April, 1967.

PAUL TOBIN
Attorney for the Plaintiff

GRAVELY Indestructible?

Tough Mower for Tough Jobs
ALL-GEAR-DRIVE

Some of our users think so—after seeing the High-torque, all-gear-drive Gravely Tractor and all-gear-drive 30" Rotary go day after day, year after year in the toughest mowing.

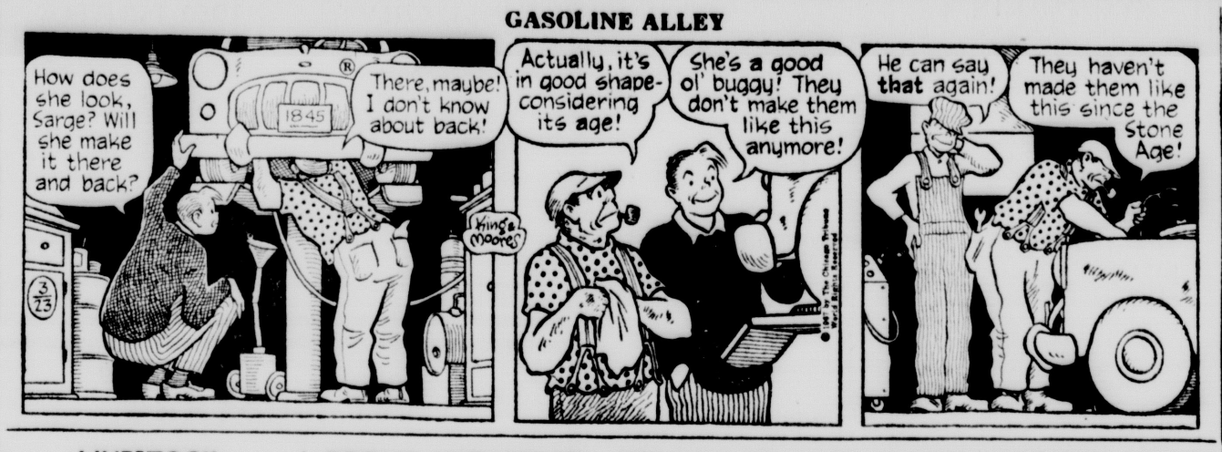

One of 39 year-round, quick-attach tools.

This is the mower for tough jobs—but it pampers a lawn too. So, no matter what your mowing job . . . tough or gentle, easy or hard—put the Gravely 30 on your job. You'll be surprised. Proof?

Ask us—"Is the Gravely really Indestructible?"

GRAVELY Indestructible?

Some of our users think so—after seeing the High-torque, all-gear-drive Gravely Tractor and all-gear-drive 30" Rotary go day after day, year after year in the toughest mowing.

One of 39 year-round, quick-attach tools.

This is the mower for tough jobs—but it pampers a lawn too. So, no matter what your mowing job . . . tough or gentle, easy or hard—put the Gravely 30 on your job. You'll be surprised. Proof?

Ask us—"Is the Gravely really Indestructible?"

Junior Editors Quiz on 5th SYMPHONY

QUESTION: Why is Beethoven's 5th Symphony so famous?

ANSWER: Ludwig van Beethoven is regarded by many as the greatest musician who ever lived. He was born in 1770 in Bonn, Germany, at a time when musicians were composing in a way which stressed a certain style rather than freedom of individual expression. Beethoven understood the musical styles of the time, but he went far beyond them, composing from the heart, expressing his own feelings of beauty and nobility with an unrivalled simplicity and power. There was also a stormy quality to Beethoven's music. He suffered from deafness and after 1802 realized that this was incurable. This situation, so tragic for a musician, is reflected in the music of the 5th Symphony, which begins with three short notes and a longer one, as noted in our illustration, an arrangement which sounds like someone knocking. Beethoven is supposed to have said of these notes: "Thus fate knocks at the door." In spite of this threat of tragedy, the symphony contains exquisite melodies, and so is famous for its resemblance to life itself, which often contrasts moments of sorrow with those of oy.

Today In History

By The Associated Press

Today is Thursday, March 23, the 82nd day of 1967. There are 283 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1775, Patrick Henry declared: "Give me liberty or give me death," at the Virginia Provincial convention in Richmond.

On this date

In 1901, Filipino rebel leader Aguinaldo was captured.

In 1945, the American 3rd Army crossed the Rhine River in Germany.

Ten years ago — A day old blizzard continued to blanket with snow and disrupt services in large portions of Illinois, Texas, Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Indiana, Missouri and New Mexico.

Five years ago — The U.N. Security Council rejected a Cuban complaint against the decision of the Organization of American States to exclude communist Cuba from the inter-American group.

One year ago — Communist China and the Soviet Union appeared close to an open split. Peking rejected an invitation to attend the Soviet Communist party congress in Moscow and then charged the Soviet Union was plotting with the United States to encircle Red China.
